Communication And Mass Media Culture Domination And Opposition:

Communication and Mass Media Michèle Martin, Graham Knight, 1996-10 The goal of this book is to inform readers about the workings of various mass media so that they may use them in a more critical way The author examines how the mass media are organized how mass media content is produced and how the mass media create meaning and construct reality The text is divided into two parts the first part reviews several theoretical models while the second part deals with empirical analysis Communication and Mass Media, [ECH Master] Michèle Martin, 2006 Communication Theory and Research Denis McQuail, Peter Golding, Els De Bens, 2005 This exciting collection of papers represents some of the finest communications research published during the last decade To mark the 20th anniversary of the European Journal of Communication a leading international journal the editors have selected 21 papers all of which make significant and valuable interventions in the field of media and communications The volume is prefaced with an introduction by the editors and will be a central research text for scholars in this field Politics, Society, and the Media, Second Edition Paul Nesbitt-Larking, 2007-01-01 Politics Society and the Media is the first comprehensive political sociology of the media to be published in Canada Paul Nesbitt Larking draws upon a range of disciplines including cultural and media studies political economy social theory and political science to provide an analysis of the relationship between power and representation in Canada The framework for the book presents a model of the mutual interaction between politics and the media Attention is focused in the early chapters on how cultural ideological economic and governmental forces shape and condition the production of media in Canada Chapters on the work of Innis Grant McLuhan and their postmodern successors place the evolution of McLuhan's theoretical argument that the medium is the message at the heart of the book Canadian identity and how to understand Canadian media politically is the subject of a chapter on textual analysis Two extensive chapters follow on the media's influence and effects on politics In addition to standard topics on politics and the media this new edition offers much more an examination of the media on the politics of gender and aboriginal peoples the micro politics of the media workplace and an exploration of important media related considerations Throughout reference is made to relevant and compelling issues placed within the context of media theory Roadblocks to Equality Jeffery Klaehn, 2009 Explores women's experiences within contemporary society in a domestic and global context The Media of Mass Communication John Vivian, Peter Maurin, 2000 Communication and Conflict Jörg Becker, 2005 Papers presented at various conferences and articles some previously published Politics, Society, and the Media Paul Wingfield Nesbitt-Larking, 2001 Nesbitt Larking challenges his readers to become critical consumers of media and provides a number of strategies to encourage them to do so Nick Baxter Moore Brock University Journal of Intergroup Relations, 2004, New Perspectives on Deviance Lori G. Beaman, 1999 Designed for courses in Deviant Behaviour and Introductory Deviance This edited collection focuses on the construction of notions of deviance in everyday life Discussions of traditional theories are included to provide students with a well rounded overview of theoretical approaches to deviance However the guiding theoretical framework of the book is a focus on the social construction of deviance both at the macro and micro levels While the first section considers topics that are traditionally found in deviance textbooks prostitution drug abuse alcoholism and mental illness the second section highlights assumptions about what constitutes normal families bodies and cultural practices Most deviance readers and texts focus on very narrow conceptualizations of what constitutes deviant behaviour with little attention paid to everyday constructions of deviance related to poverty body image and family values Agenda Setting and Public Policy in Africa Kelechi Amihe Kalu,2004 Examines how decision makers have managed and mismanaged public policy issues in sub Saharan Africa It analyses the neglected issue of how ideas about public policy are generated by whom and for what purpose Persistent problems such as political instability environmental pollution famine hunger desertification rent seeking and incessant intra conflicts across the continent are explored in a systematic and structured manner Alberta Journal of Educational Research ,2001 Theories of Human Communication Stephen W. Littlejohn,Karen A. Foss,2010-11-04 For almost four decades Theories of Human Communication has offered readers an engaging and informative guide to the rich array of theories that influence our understanding of communication The first edition broke new ground with its comprehensive discussion of theorizing by communication scholars Since that time the field has expanded tremendously from a small cluster of explanations and relatively unconnected theories to a huge body of work from numerous traditions or communities of scholarship The tenth edition covers both classic and recent theories created by communication scholars and informed by scholars in other fields Littlejohn and Foss organize communication theory around two intersecting elementscontexts and theoretical traditionsand emphasize the connections trajectories and relationships among the theories They provide clear accessible explanations that synthesize without oversimplifying Their extensive use of examples presents theorizing as a natural process and invites readers to reflect on their own experiences and to become active participants in continuing the conversation In addition to the authors lucid explanations of theories the text includes From the Source boxes in which the theorists share their perspectives on communication The extensive bibliography almost 1 200 entries and chapter citations are invaluable resources for more in depth study Mass Media and the Moral Imagination (Communication, Culture and Theology) Philip J. Rossi,Paul A. Soukup,1994-03 Communication and Latin American Society Rita Atwood,Emile G. McAnany,1986 This enlightening work represents the first comprehensive overview of the major issues in the communication scholarship in Latin America In addition to a comparison of critical communication research in Latin America the United States and Western Europe the authors delineate within a historical context the seminal ideals that guide Latin American critical communication research The book also includes contributions by Latin American communication scholars who provide examples of theoretical and methodological orientations to the field Atwood and McAnany s thorough and informative compilation will engage scholars and students of communication theory and Latin American studies Principles of Sociology James E. Curtis, Lorne Tepperman, 2006 A brief version of Lorne Tepperman's and James Curtis Sociology Canadian Perspectives this text introduces students to the study of sociology through an overview of sociological theories and research methods and a discussion of how these are applied to the study of major social processes and institutions A team of contributors explain key concepts and theories by examining Canadian society within a global context Communication, Information, and Culture William H. Melody, 1985 Mass Media, Ideologies, and the Revolutionary Movement Armand Mattelart, 1980 Mass Communication Theory An Introduction Denis McQuail, 1994-06 Offering an integrated treatment of the major components of mass communication this text seeks to encompass the diverse forms of mass communication in contemporary societies It aims to show how theories of mass communication relate to the broader understanding of society and culture
