Communication Disorders An Introduction For Communitybased Rehabilitation Workers:

Communication Disorders Ann Zubrick, Gillian Clezy, Stephanie Stokes, Tara Whitehill, 1996-07-01 Community based rehabilitation is based on the belief that allied health and education workers in the field provide a vital support service to specialist agencies which are often centrally located and unable to meet the long term needs of the wider community. Increasingly specialist speech and language pathologists undertake a consultative role in order to meet community demands for services particularly in rural settings. Initial identification and follow up management of commonly occurring communication disorders may be the role of non specialist rehabilitation workers. This book developed out of the authors involvement in teaching a course in communication disorders to physicians in China as part of a one year programme in community based rehabilitation. The purpose of the book is to introduce the principles of assessment management and research to community based rehabilitation workers.
