Communications Law Liberties Restraints And The Modern Media Mass Communication And Journalism:

Communications Law John D. Zelezny, 1997 Takes a narrative nuts and bolts approach to mass communication with substantial material applicable to public relations advertising broadcasting and journalism The book addresses market changes by streamlining some of the traditional news oriented material and introducing other legal topics of broad concern to communications professionals i e advertising PR video production announcing magazine editing etc Its approach and pedagogical features make the material easily accessible Communications Law: Liberties/Restraints and Mod Media Zelezny, 2013-01-31

Cases in Communications Law John D. Zelezny, 2004 The primary goal of this book is to present cases that will familiarize communications students with authoritative judicial reasoning on key principles of communications law Most of the cases are from the Supreme Court of the United States and stand as precedents that all other courts in the nation must follow

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

Cases in Communications Law John D. Zelezny, 1993 This text is truly oriented to the modern mass communications student with substantial material applicable to public relations advertising and broadcasting as well as journalism The book tries to strike a middle ground between the very light descriptive approaches and the very detailed case oriented legal texts also striking a middle ground between legal principles and survival information for the media professional

Literary Journalism Jean Chance, William McKeen, 2001 This first edition reader introduces students to 26 of our greatest literary journalists from Ernie Pyle to Hunter S Thompson It is the most current and complete anthology of the best of literary journalism

Ethics in Media Communications Louis A. Day, 2000 This book offers a systematic approach to moral reasoning by combining ethical theory with the practice of ethics by media professionals A moral reasoning method is taught in the first three chapters and in the rest of the book students are presented with hypothetical situations and asked to reach an ethical decision based on the principles they have learned Pref The Basics of Media Writing Scott A. Kuehn, Andrew Lingwall, 2016-12-08 The Basics of Media Writing A Strategic Approach helps readers develop the essential writing skills and professional habits needed to succeed in 21st century media careers This research driven strategy based media writing textbook digs deeply into how media professionals think and write in journalism public relations advertising and other forms of strategic communication Authors Scott A Kuehn and Andrew Lingwall have created two comprehensive writing models to help students overcome their problems in finding and developing story topics by giving them starting points to begin writing The Professional Strategy Triangle model shows students how to think critically about the audience the situation and the message before starting a news story or persuasive piece and the FAJA four point model asks students a series of questions about their story type Fact Analysis Judgment or Action to guide them to the right angle or organizational structure for their message Rooted in classical rhetorical methods this step by step technique enables readers to strategically approach each writing task no matter the format Internet Law in China Guosong Shao,2012-03-14 A comprehensive structured and up to date introduction to the law governing the dissemination of information in a computer mediated world in China Internet Law in China stresses the practical applications of the law that are encountered by all individuals and organizations in Chinese cyberspace but always in the light of theoretical underpinnings Among the overarching topics treated in the Chinese context are the following intellectual property protection in cyberspace privacy of communication and data privacy electronic contract forming and electronic signature personal domestic and international jurisdiction and free expression in cyberspace This book is particularly valuable to legal business and communication professionals academics and students concerned with the regulation of the Internet and related activities in China It is the first book to focus solely on Chinese Internet law The first book to systematically explore the legal doctrines and principles that apply to the Internet and related activities in China Broad coverage from Internet speech to proprietary interests privacy issues electronic contracts and jurisdiction Original comparative analysis of China s Internet regulation practice in the global context The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society Debra L. Merskin,2019-11-12 The reference will discuss mass media around the world in their varied forms newspapers magazines radio television film books music websites and social media and will describe the role of each in both mirroring and shaping society Media/impact Shirley Biagi,2003 Media Shirley Biagi,2007 Mass Communication Law Donald M. Gillmor,Jerome A. Barron,Todd F. Simon,1998 This text provides a comprehensive survey of media law It is the original modern casebook in mass communication law emphasizing learning of law principles and precedents directly from the writings of courts and administrative agencies Mass Media Research Roger D. Wimmer,Joseph R. Dominick,2000 This text begins with an overview of mass communication research and ethics of research It then explores each major approach to research including qualitative content analysis survey research longitudinal research and experimental research The text continues with a section on data analysis and concludes with a forward looking section on research applications covering such topics as research in print and electronic media as well as on the Internet Global Communication Yahya R. Kamalipour,2007 Intended for upper level undergraduate or lower level graduate students with prior experience in studying mass communications this textbook put together by Kamalipour Purdue U Calumet presents emerging and conventional topics in international communication including international public relations and advertising trends in media consolidation Online Journalism Richard Craig,2005 Learn to report write and edit for online media with ONLINE JOURNALISM with InfoTrac Created specifically with the Internet in mind this communication text will help you explore the writing opportunities associated with online media Interviews with online professionals are included throughout the text to give you an idea of exactly what the job of the online journalist entails A comprehensive Web site helps keep the book up to date and provides additional material including sound clips of some of the book s interviewees Communications Law John D. Zelezny,1993-06 Broadcasting Pluralism and Diversity Lesley Hitchens,2006-10-31 Broadcasting Pluralism and Diversity is a study of the policy and regulatory measures relating to the promotion of media diversity in three jurisdictions the United Kingdom the United States and Australia A central focus of the book is regulation of media ownership and control and taking an historical approach the book argues that early policy and regulatory decisions continue to have a significant influence on current reforms Whilst policy and reform debates focus on ownership and control measures the book also argues that such measures can not be considered in isolation from other regulatory instruments and that a holistic regulatory approach is required As such content regulation and competition regulation are also considered Underlying the study is the contention that much of the policy informing pluralism and diversity regulation although making reference to the importance of the media s role in the democratic process has also been skewed by a futile focus on the different regulatory treatment of the press and broadcasting which is adversely influencing current policy debates The book argues that a different approach using the public sphere concept needs to be adopted and used as a measure against which regulatory reform in the changing media environment can be assessed The Interplay of Influence Kathleen Hall Jamieson,Karlyn Kohrs Campbell,2001 Focusing on the persuasive strategies of journalists advertisers and politicians this text examines the power of the mass media to influence the perceptions and actions of the public It also reveals how the public exerts its own influence on the mass media in turn After an introductory chapter on the nature and use of the mass media the authors examine in turn journalism and advertising with separate chapters on definition persuasive strategies and interactive influence In the final two chapters they turn to the world of politics noting how politicians use both news and advertising to get their points across to the public This edition includes updated coverage throughout including the Internet s role in media politics and advertising International Communication Kwadwo Anokwa,Carolyn A. Lin,Michael Brian Salwen,2003 This edited volume of 16 readings is a collection of works from the foremost scholars of international communication Divided into seven parts the text is comprehensive in its coverage including perspectives on issues and topics such as press freedom propaganda gatekeeping colonialism and mass media development globalization cultural concerns and diffusion
