Communist Revolution In The Streets:

Communist Revolution in the Streets Gary Allen, 1967-01-01 Revolution in the Street Andrew Grant Wood, 2001-03

Winner of the 1999 Michael C Meyer Manuscript Prize This new book examines the social protests of popular groups in urban Mexico during and after the Mexican Revolution and also shows how the revolution inspired women to become activists in these movements Andrew Grant Wood's well researched narrative focuses specifically on the complex negotiation between elites and popular groups over the issue of public housing in post revolutionary Veracruz Mexico Wood then compares the Veracruz experience with other tenant movements throughout Mexico and Latin America He analyzes what the popular groups wanted what they got how they got it and how the changes wrought by the revolution facilitated their actions Grassroots organizing by house renters in Veracruz began at a time of multiple sovereignty when ruling elites found themselves in a process of regime change and political realignment As the movement took shape tenants expanded their opportunities through a dynamic repertoire of public demonstration direct action networking and constant negotiation with landlords and public officials During the height of the movement protesters forced revolutionary elites to respond by requiring them either to negotiate co opt and or repress members of independent grassroots organizations in order to maintain their rule The tenant movements demonstrate how ordinary women and men contributed to the remaking of state and civil society relations in post revolutionary Mexico This book analyzes the critical roles that women played as leaders and as rank and file agitators to keep the movements alive The author has used a wide variety of primary sources to provide a vibrant portrayal of these urban social protesters On a larger scale this book shows that the voices of the urban poor were able to become part of the revolutionary dialogue and ideology While others have highlighted the role of rural folk such as the Zapatistas this work allows readers to appreciate the urban side of the po

Lions in the Street James Schneider, 2009-08-21 Lions in the Street is a compilation of poems short stories on education letters to the editor unfinished novels children stories and political and historical essays by the late James Schneider The writings presented in this book are a compilation on a wide range of topics with an underlying thread of a love for family and children a desire to improve the society in which we live and need to present an alternative point of view close to that of the common man which has been all but ignored in the mainstream media

Cachita's Streets Jalane D. Schmidt, 2015-09-17 Cuba's patron saint the Virgin of Charity of El Cobre also called Cachita is a potent symbol of Cuban national identity Jalane D Schmidt shows how groups as diverse as Indians and African slaves Spanish colonial officials Cuban independence soldiers Catholic authorities and laypeople intellectuals journalists and artists practitioners of spiritism and Santería activists politicians and revolutionaries each have constructed and disputed the meanings of the Virgin Schmidt examines the occasions from 1936 to 2012 when the Virgin's beloved original brown skinned effigy was removed from her national shrine in the majority black and mixed race mountaintop village of El Cobre and brought into Cuba's cities There devotees venerated and followed Cachita's image through urban streets amassing at large scale public ceremonies in her honor that promoted competing claims about Cuban religion race and political ideology Schmidt compares these religious rituals to other contemporaneous Cuban street events including carnival protests and revolutionary rallies where organizers stage performances of contested definitions of Cubaness Schmidt provides a comprehensive treatment of Cuban religions history and culture interpreted through the prism of Cachita

History in Public Space Joanna Wojdon,Dorota Wiśniewska,2024-08-05 This book focuses on various manifestations of history in public spaces in the physical ones of various historical times and geographical places as well as in the virtual world It discusses how the spaces have been shaped and re shaped by whom and for what not always laudable purposes and raises pragmatical and ethical questions for both research and practical activities in the field By combining both micro and global perspectives the universal role that history plays in spaces created by and for as well as the factors determining its usages is revealed The authors are rooted in specific national contexts Canadian or American Ukrainian or Polish British or Irish German or Luxembourgish Korean or Brazilian and the case studies are varied including large cities and small towns city centers and godforsaken cemeteries but the narratives built on these cases go beyond when they deal with issues such as decoding history and its meanings in public spaces doing history in public spaces and observing changes in manifestations of history in public spaces This volume is an essential resource for anyone interested in the relationship between history and public space in a global perspective

To Get Ukraine Oleksandr Shyshko,2018-01-01 Since Maidan in Kyiv and Russian presence in the Crimea Ukraine has never been the same In 2014 the country is deeply divided by the conflict imposed on the Ukrainians But since nobody actually asked the nation author Oleksandr Shyshko decided to take matters into his own hands and look for the answer to the ultimate question who are the Ukrainians and what do they want Shyshko spent his time researching the national identity of native Ukrainians and as he went he stumbled on a discovery that led to yet another question where is Ukraine going the so called Quo vadis of the Ukrainian people His findings and critical comments gave birth to this new book that is now for the first time being published in English To Get Ukraine The National Republican ,1927 Bulletin John Birch Society,1967 Street Art of the Revolution Vladimir Pavlovich Tolstoï,I. M.
