some intellectuals worry that it might imply collectivism The great value of this new Encyclopedia is that it gives readers a chance to sample the many uses of the term and gain clarity about the issues at stake It is a major contribution to a more coherent understanding of this fundamental idea Robert Bellah Professor of Sociology Emeritus University of California Berkeley and co author of Habits of the Heart SAGE Publications is proud to announce the Encyclopedia of Community a major reference work that summarizes the many fascinating and important concepts of a global topic Community itself is a concept an experience and a central part of being human Whether the reader is a student researcher or professional in the field of psychology sociology or even economics this three volume work will provide the necessary definitions of community beyond traditional views Arranged in an A to Z fashion the Encyclopedia can also be viewed topically via a Reader s Guide This allows for interdisciplinary compare and contrast among topics such as types of communities social capital technology urban life politics and law community design and global studies Edited by the award winning team at Berkshire Reference and assisted by an editorial board of world renowned scholars the Encyclopedia of Community will prove to be one of the most widely used reference works in your collection

The Power of Culture in City Planning Tom Borrup, 2020-11-29 The Power of Culture in City Planning focuses on human diversity strengths needs and ways of living together in geographic communities The book turns attention to the anthropological definition of culture encouraging planners in both urban and cultural planning to focus on characteristics of humanity in all their variety It calls for a paradigm shift re positioning city planners base maps to start with a richer understanding of human cultures Borrup argues for cultural master plans in parallel to transportation housing parks and other specialized plans while also changing the approach of city comprehensive planning to put people or users first rather than land uses as does the dominant practice Cultural plans as currently conceived are not sufficient to help cities keep pace with dizzying impacts of globalization immigration and rapidly changing cultural interests Cultural planners need to up their game and enriching their own and city planners cultural competencies is only one step Both planning practices have much to learn from one another and already overlap in more ways than most recognize This book highlights some of the strengths of the lesser known practice of cultural planning to help forge greater understanding and collaboration between the two practices empowering city planners with new tools to bring about more equitable communities This will be an important resource for students teachers and practitioners of city and cultural planning as well as municipal policymakers of all stripes

Adult Education in Communities Emilio Lucio-Villegas, 2015-06-25 Participation can be a double edged sword in that it can be used to bind people into agendas and policies they have little control over or it can help enable them to give voice to real and significant issues Drawing on the work of Raymond Williams genuine participation has to be an open and democratic process which enables all to contribute to the creation of meanings Adult education in communities can then be involved in the process of creating really useful knowledge that is knowledge which enables people individuals and collectivities who experience systematic forms of oppression domination and exploitation to think about analyse and act on their situation individually and severally By drawing on contemporary accounts of emancipatory action and participatory research the author elaborates on the role of adult educators in this context From the Preface This book tries to reflect on adult education and its close relationships with communities It is a modest attempt to maintain adult education in the scope of the community life against the growing schooling the focus on employability and on the labour market In the last years it seems that adult education has become a kind of provider of diplomas skills and competences and has forgotten its role to enlighten individuals and help them to share their community life with an abundance of richness diversity sadness and happiness Adult Education is intrinsically connected to daily life and the life that individuals constantly edify in their interactions If adult education is connected to daily life one of the major tasks is to recover this feeling and to link daily life and education I think that at present time in a moment of intense reductionism reality is usually presented as very plain losing its complexity and diversity that are related to the fact that life is being lived everyday by men and women as creators and relational beings

Researching and Transforming Adult Learning and Communities Rob Evans, Ewa Kurantowicz, Emilio Lucio-Villegas, 2015-12-17 Can adult education and learning be understood without reference to community and people's daily lives The response to be found in the chapters of this volume say emphatically no they cannot Adult learning can be best understood if we look at the social life of people in communities and this book is an attempt to recover this view The chapters of this volume reflect ongoing research in the field of adult education and learning in and with communities At the same time the work of the authors presented here offers a very vital reflection of the work of the ESREA research network Between Local and Global Adult Learning and Communities The chapters showcase the broad range of professional practice the variety in both methodology and theoretical background as well as the impressive scope of field research experience the authors bring to bear in their papers The first section provides the broad view of research into adult learning and community development emphasising how social movements are at the heart of local and global change and that they are critically important sources of power The second section focuses in on the practice of educators mediators working in local and regional contexts in which the tensions of the wider policy and discourse environment impact on adult learners The third section privileges the view at the close level of research inside local communities in the field International researchers and practitioners particularly young researchers who are active in adult learning and in local global communities will be interested in this book The emphasis of the chapters is on participatory and emancipatory social research Empowerment of women in rural communities involvement of communities in social and environmental movements power sharing in community research projects and the exposure of hegemonic globalising forces at work in ethnic communities are among the themes developed in this volume
