Communities In Globalization The Invisible Mayan Nahual:

Communities in Globalization Juan Pablo Pérez Sáinz, Katharine Andrade-Eekhoff, 2003 There is a silent globalization being carried out far below the action of multinational firms international organizations and state policies It is the work of societies communities of determined and creative people Communities in Globalization richly illustrates the experiences of three Central American communities connected with global markets The unique perspective of each is developed to show the economic political institutional and social effects of its connection with world trade Ultimately this book seeks to identify the resources that allow a community to face globalization while minimizing risks and maximizing opportunities Making a Place for the Future in Maya Guatemala John P. Hawkins, Walter Randolph Adams, 2024-10-15 In 1998 Hurricane Mitch pounded the isolated village of Santa Catarina Ixtahuac n in mountainous western Guatemala destroying many homes The experience traumatized many Ixtahuaguenses Much of the community relocated to be safer and closer to transportation that they hoped would help them to improve their lives acquire more schooling and find supportive jobs This study followed the two resulting communities over the next quarter century as they reconceived and renegotiated their place in Guatemalan society and the world Making a Place for the Future in Maya Guatemala shows how humans continuously evaluate and rework the efficacy of their cultural heritage This process helps explain the inevitability and speed of culture change in the face of natural disasters and our ongoing climate crisis Rethinking Development in Latin America Charles H.
