For ALL the People Michael Slaby, 2021-02-23 Slaby is the Yuval Noah Harari of media He pointedly outlines the fracture of our culture and democracy while providing hopeful next steps for how we can redesign our systems for a more civically minded world Megan Kiefer author of The Third Dimension of Literacy A leader in digital communication and grassroots political campaigns explains how the internet and modern media have undermined America and how we can reclaim our voices for the good of civic life The creators of the internet promised us jetpacks better experiences more choices and deeper relationships Built on a diversity of voices our online freedom was supposed to spark a democratic transformation But our platforms don't work for us we're the inventory and our outrage fuels a tech revolution optimized for profit not civic life As one of the top digital strategists for Barack Obama's two presidential campaigns Michael Slaby saw the beginning of a new kind of national division What he witnessed would spawn the Tea Party movement upset the 2016 election and accelerate the polarization of American civic life Slaby presents the four core areas which can be reclaimed to work better for all of us platforms government institutions corporations and even the users ourselves Optimistic future focused and deeply passionate For ALL the People breaks down how we got here and how we the users can work toward a better democracy through tech

Is the Commission Still Great? Steve Richardson, 2022-10-04 Dismantling the Myths that Obscure God's Great Plan The primary mission of the church is to glorify God by blessing all peoples of the world through the gospel of Jesus Christ The Great Commission's task of global disciple making is the most ambitious project ever undertaken Given the scale and complexity of global missions it's no wonder that misconceptions abound even among invested godly people Questions and skepticism about missions arise from both outside and inside the church Is missions an outdated idea Do missionaries do more harm than good Are we succeeding or failing Is it time for global believers to do the job in their own countries with minimal Western involvement We don't need to fear questions like these But we do need to seek and find solid biblical answers Is the Commission Still Great dismantles the myths that obscure God's beautiful plan to make disciples of all nations Misperceptions discourage God's people from joyfully participating with Him in reaching the world Yet deepening our understanding of the call to missions restores perspective and motivates us to participate in God's grand design Author and missionary kid Steve Richardson uses stories from Scripture history and his own ministry experience to impart timely lessons on modern missions Richardson also draws from the wisdom of field missionaries sending agencies pastors and church members to address this all important endeavor Each chapter finishes with thought provoking questions to facilitate purposeful discussion in families and small groups Is the Commission Still Great will equip followers of Christ to be participants not spectators in the redemption of the world

The World's Sixteen Crucified Saviors Kersey Graves, 2001-09 The World's Sixteen Crucified Saviors has been out of print but sought after for many years A small part of it was reprinted in The Book Your Church Doesn't Want You to Read in 1994 Many people are unaware that before Christianity there were 15 other religions that also had a savior who died for their sins then arose from the dead

Harper's Magazine Lee Foster Hartman, Frederick Lewis Allen, 1922

Your Daily Life is Your Temple Anne Rowthorn, 2006 Many of us sense that God is with us in our daily lives but can't put words to the longings we feel and most churches and synagogues aren't helping us If we still go to church we wonder why we are still there and feel we've lost the connections between the faith we practice on Sunday morning and a passionate life in the everyday world Using Carlo Carretto's definition of spirituality as a way of thinking living and sanctifying our lives Rowthorn shows how we can uncover an authentic faith for our times To be passionately engaged all we need to do is take the ordinary acts of our lives and see them differently We have only to unwrap the gifts we already hold in our hands the people we meet the places we go and the choices we make about work children friendships politics the arts and hospitality     Communities Near and Far ,1993
