Community Corrections Burt Galaway, Joe Hudson, C. David Hollister, 1976 Probation, Parole, and Community Corrections Lawrence F. Travis, 1985-01-01 Encyclopedia of Community Corrections Shannon M. Barton-Bellessa, 2012-05

In response to recognition in the late 1960s and early 1970s that traditional incarceration was not working alternatives to standard prison settings were sought and developed One of those alternatives community based corrections had been conceived in the 1950s as a system that might prove more progressive humane and effective particularly with people who had committed less serious criminal offenses and for whom incarceration with constant exposure to serious offenders and career criminals might prove more damaging than rehabilitative The alternative of community corrections has evolved to become a substantial part of the criminal justice and correctional system spurred in recent years not so much by a progressive humane philosophy as by dramatically increasing prison populations court orders to fix overextended prison settings and an economic search for cost savings Encyclopedia of Community Corrections explores all aspects of community corrections from its philosophical foundation to its current inception Features a thematic reader s guide in the front matter groups entries by broad topical or thematic areas to make it easy for users to find related entries at a glance a chronology in the back matter helps students put individual events into broader historical context a glossary provides students with concise definitions to key terms in the field a resource guide to classic books journals and web sites along with the further readings accompanying each entry guides students to further resources in their research journeys and appendix offers statistics from the Bureau of Justice Society, Ethics, and the Law: A Reader David A. Mackey, Kathryn M. Elvey, 2020-02-06 Society Ethics and the Law A Reader is an engaging thoughtful and academic text designed to help students make connections to ethical issues using real world examples and thought provoking discussion questions Comprised of 57 original articles topics range from traditional philosophical based academic articles to conversational style narratives of practitioners experiences with ethical issues within the criminal justice system Content spans areas of criminal justice from traditional police courts and corrections to popular culture rap social media and technology to timely immigration gun control and mental health Authored by real world experts Character in Context sections illustrate how ethics impacts daily life These include among others Jim Obergefell s perspective on society ethics and the law as it relates to his experience as plaintiff in the Supreme Court Case Obergefell V Hodges the case that legalized gay marriage Federal Probation ,1998 Community Corrections Dennis J. Stevens, 2006 This book engages readers and encourages them to better understand community corrections and life choices from a realistic or an applied perspective rather than a theoretical perspective This work provides relevant general information key issues and experiences of practitioners researchers and community corrections officers to help guide a reader through the complex world of community corrections For justice academy instructors DOC trainers and superintendents legislators community correction managers and probation and parole officers

Community-Based Corrections Shannon M. Barton-Bellessa, Robert D. Hanser, 2011-01-06 Community Based Corrections A Text Reader is a text reader that includes a collection of carefully selected edited articles on community based corrections that have previously appeared in a number of leading criminal justice academic journals This book is a substitute for a standard community based corrections textbook without becoming standard because it will include text and original articles along with current research The book is divided into eleven Sections that will include 15 pages of authored text and 34 significant research based articles with a policy orientation The articles will provide the reader with a grasp of the development and current status of research on the various community based corrections topics Ancillaries include instructor and student resource sites Instructors will be provided test questions and PowerPoint slides Materials on the student study site will include self study quizzes and extra articles for each section of the book American Journal of Correction ,1975
