Community Gender And Violence Subaltern Studies Xi:

Community, Gender, and Violence Partha Chatterjee, Pradeep Jeganathan, 2001-11-14 In its early phase Subaltern Studies dealt extensively with the issue of community and violence in the context of peasant uprisings The present volume concentrates on gender and national politics and introduces a wide range of new issues raised by the relations between community gender and violence Global Perspectives on War, Gender and Health Hannah Bradby, 2016-04-22 Rendering the suffering of the marginalized visible has been an important aspect of feminist sociological studies of health illness and medicine with the subjective experience of those without access to institutional power being at the forefront of the research This volume analyzes the links between the suffering caused by the intentional violence of war and the unintentional suffering engendered by modern medicinal processes By establishing a fitting tribute to the academic and campaigning work of Meg Stacey Global Perspectives on War Gender and Health responds to her challenge of why medical sociology had not yet turned its gaze upon the health consequences of war A selection of international case studies are used to create a volume of significant interest to sociologists and those working in the fields of anthropology social policy social work peace war and security studies and international development Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia Leela Fernandes, 2021-11-15 This new edition of the Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia provides a comprehensive overview of the study of gender in South Asia The Handbook covers the central contributions that have defined this area and captures innovative and emerging paradigms that are shaping the future of the field It offers a wide range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives spanning both the humanities and social sciences focusing on India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka This revised edition has been thoroughly updated and includes new chapters thus adding new areas of scholarship The Handbook is organized thematically into five major parts Historical formations and theoretical framings Law citizenship and the nation Representations of culture place identity Labor and the economy Inequality activism and the state The Handbook illustrates the ways in which scholarship on gender has contributed to a rethink of theoretical concepts and empirical understandings of contemporary South Asia Finally it focuses on new areas of inquiry that have been opened up through a focus on gender and the intersections between gender and categories such as caste ethnicity sexuality and religion This timely study is essential reading for scholars who research and teach on South Asia as well as for scholars in related interdisciplinary fields that focus on women and gender from comparative and transnational perspectives Community, Gender and Violence Partha Chatterjee, Pradeep Jeganathan, 2000 ICSSR Journal of Abstracts and Reviews Indian Council of Social Science Research, 2001 The Book Review, 2005 The Politics of Gender Violence Meghana Vasudev Nayak, 2003 And Justice for All? Ian Balfour, Eduardo Cadava, 2004 Questions of human rights are among the most pressing and intractable matters at this historical moment If claims to human rights are by definition universal the formulation legislation and implementation of them tend to be significantly less than universal And Justice for All a special issue of SAQ examines the idea and the reality of human rights and their attendant discourses The essays gathered here from academics and activists working in law philosophy political theory literature medicine and ngos collectively interrogate these universal claims to human rights and the political justice that may or may not follow from them Grappling with the philosophical and theoretical questions at the heart of human rights these essays take into consideration current political configurations such as sovereignty genocide humanitarian intervention and the neglected domain of cultural rights the right to a cultural identity Drawing on Enlightenment thinking about human rights at the same time that they analyze the central concepts at work there including the humanity of man and the nature of rights or of law the contributors make a necessary intervention in a world system that Enlightenment thinkers could scarcely have envisioned Contributors Etienne Balibar Rony Brauman Wendy Brown Rebecca Comay Jacques Derrida Paul Downes Werner Hamacher Thomas Keenan Susan Maslan Jacques Rancière Bruce Robbins Avital Ronell Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Elsa Stamatopoulou Slavoj Žižek Book Review Index, 2004 To Live to Work Janice C. H. Kim, 2009 Linking economic and social historical research methods with special reference to the evolution of the industrial labor force To Live to Work offers an account of the popular expansion of gender labor and political consciousnesses among working women in colonial Korea While Korea's rapid industrial development throughout the twentieth century is one focus of this work equal emphasis is given to interpreting the social and cultural consequences of modernization such as the growth of cities and the rise of male and female labor forces Special attention is given to the partitions in the labor market along the lines of gender age class and nationality
