Community Of The Beloved Disciple:

The Community of the Beloved Disciple Raymond Edward Brown, 1979 This study in Johannine ecclesiology reconstructs the history of one Christian community in the first century a community whose life from its inception to its last hour is reflected in the Gospel and Epistles of John It was a community that struggled with the world with the Jews and with other Christians Eventually the struggle spread even to its own ranks It was in short a community not unlike the Church of today This book offers a different view of the traditional Johannine eagle In the Gospel the eagle soars above the earth but with talons bared for the fray In the Epistles we discover the eaglets tearing at each other for possession of the nest Back cover Community of the Beloved Disciple, The Brown, Raymond E., The life loves and hates of an individual church in

New Testament times Considers the life and writings of St John The Community of the Beloved Disciple Raymond Edward Brown, 2024 This reprint of Raymond Brown's The Community of the Beloved Disciple includes a new foreword by Paul N Anderson that provides an updated overview of the book the book's receptions and developments in the Johannine scholarship The Community of the Beloved Disciple Raymond E. disciple Raymond Edward Brown, 1996 The Community of the Beloved Disciple Raymond E. Brown, 1979 Peter and the Beloved Disciple Kevin Quast, 1989-10-01 The common supposition that the Fourth Gospel presents a rivalry between Peter and the Beloved Disciple in which Peter is subordinated to the hero of the Johannine Community is here subjected to fresh scrutiny After establishing working hypotheses regarding the Johannine Community and the function of representative figures in the Fourth Gospel the author first examines the function of Peter independently of the Beloved Disciple Here he is the exemplary leader of the Twelve In those passages where the two characters are juxtaposed it is evident that the Beloved Disciple is not inordinately exalted above Peter who in fact enjoys a comparable status Peter and the Beloved Disciple have complementary roles to play in relation to Jesus and his unfolding hour John 20 shows the Beloved Disciple as the example of a true believing disciple of Jesus while concerned to give appropriate respect and support to the Apostolic stream of traditions associated with Peter The Gospel appendix ch 21 is concerned to hold together both sorts of traditions and allegiances Finally the author shows how the Gospel as a whole works coherently to encourage a wider view of Christian intercommunity unity after the death of the Beloved Disciple An Introduction to Language in the Johannine

Community David Kaczmarek, T.O.R., 2008-04-30 The Bible is probably the most enduring book in all of Western History yet modern day readers can easily forget that each book of the Bible is the product of inspired yet very human authorship This is particularly evident in the New Testament as inspired authors address the real needs of their communities through their work Biblical scholar Fr David Kaczmarek T O R examines how the authorship of the Gospel according to John using the evolving language concepts of their Christian community told the story of Jesus in unique fashion and responded to issues in the life of the local church According to John John F. O'Grady, 1999 The Gospel of John intrigues fascinates and confuses many It is filled with compelling personalities who move on and off the stage Each contributes to an overview of the meaning of Jesus and his life death and resurrection The community behind this gospel in particular the Beloved Disciple has remained in shadows for centuries New insights into how this community actually expressed their faith opens the gospel to further analysis and deeper appreciation of the life and spirituality of the early church at the end of the first century

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Re-presenting the Johannine Community Yak-hwee Tan,2008 Re Presenting the Johannine Community A Postcolonial Perspective explores the characterization of the Johannine community in the Farewell Discourse of the Fourth Gospel from a postcolonial perspective The community is scrutinized with the lens of an integrated literary rhetorical and ideological postcolonial approach The disciples emerge as both the Self insofar as they resist an imperial reality represented by the world and the Other with respect to Jesus and the Father As such far from immutable and bland the Johannine community is portrayed as chameleonic and engaged in an emerging strategy of resistance Book Jacket The Anointed Community Gary M. Burge,1987 Recent research on the Johannine literature has concluded that behind these writings stands a flourishing community of Christians who lived under the tutelage of the Beloved Disciple preserved his writings and venerated his memory In this book Gary M Burge examines one feature of this community s belief and experience the role of the Spirit in its view both of Christ and of the Christian experience 1 John, 2 John, 3 John John Christopher Thomas,2019-05-21 This commentary written from a distinctively Pentecostal perspective is primarily for pastors lay persons and Bible students It is based upon the best scholarship written in popular language and communicates the meaning of the text with minimal technical distractions The author offers a running exposition on the text and extended comments on matters of special significance for Pentecostals He acknowledges and interacts with alternative interpretations of individual passages and his commentary also provides periodic opportunities for reflection upon and personal response to the biblical text The Johannine Community in Contemporary Debate Christopher Seglenieks,Christopher W. Skinner,2024-07-24 Few scholarly constructs have proven as influential or as durable as the Johannine community A product of the era in New Testament studies dominated by redaction criticism the Johannine community construct as articulated first by J Louis Martyn and later by Raymond E Brown emerged with an explanatory power that proved persuasive to scholars deliberating on the provenance and emergence of the Johannine literature for the next 50 years Recent years however have seen this once dominant paradigm questioned by many of those working with the Gospel and Letters of John The Johannine Community in Contemporary Debate is dedicated to exploring the current state of the question while shining a light on new and constructive proposals for understanding the emergence of the Johannine literature Some contributions accept the idea of a Johannine Community but suggest different ways we might know about the nature of that community Others reject the existence of a Johannine Community suggesting alternate models for understanding the emergence of these texts These proposals are themselves set in perspective by responses from senior scholars The Secret Identity of the Beloved Disciple Joseph A. Grassi, 1992 The Beloved Disciple James H. Charlesworth, 1995 The Gospel of John refers five times to the disciple whom Jesus loved From the second through the present century scholars have sought to identify this disciple traditionally concluding that he is the author of the Gospel and is indeed none other than John the son of Zebedee In recent phases of research however the identification of the Beloved Disciple with John the son of Zebedee has been exposed as weak and unpersuasive Yet according to James Charlesworth even this new research is problematic in that it tends to ascribe priority in discerning the meaning of the Gospel of John to documents other than the Gospel itself Moreover this research tends to impute historical accuracy to documents that were not primarily intended to present histories Based on extensive research then Professor Charlesworth has concluded that the primary texts in the Gospel of John and the reflections of modern scholars indicate that any identification of the Beloved Disciple whether with one of the disciples specified in the Gospel with one who is anonymous in this Gospel or with some symbolic theme must provide credible answers to eight questions BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Beloved Disciple in Conflict? Ismo Dunderberg, 2006-04-27 Was the Gospel of John written in critical response to the Gospel of Thomas an early collection of Jesus's sayings Or was it directed to the Christians among whom Thomas originated Ismo Dunderberg challenges these views arguing that the two gospels were written at about the same time but without knowledge of each other He also offers a thorough discussion of the identity and functions of the enigmatic Beloved Disciple in the Gospel of John throwing new light on this figure by comparing it to other beloved disciples of Jesus in early Christian literature This part of Dunderberg's analysis also helps to evaluate the portrayal of Judas in the recently published Gospel of Judas although this text was not yet available when this study was completed

Peter and the Beloved Disciple Kevin Quast, 1989-10-01 The common supposition that the Fourth Gospel presents a rivalry between Peter and the Beloved Disciple in which Peter is subordinated to the hero of the Johannine Community is here subjected to fresh scrutiny After establishing working hypotheses regarding the Johannine Community and the function of representative figures in the Fourth Gospel the author first examines the function of Peter independently of the Beloved Disciple Here he is the exemplary leader of the Twelve In those passages where the two characters are juxtaposed it is evident that the Beloved Disciple is not inordinately exalted above Peter who in fact enjoys a comparable status Peter and the Beloved Disciple have complementary roles to play in relation to Jesus and his unfolding hour John 20 shows the Beloved Disciple as the example of a true believing disciple of Jesus while concerned to give appropriate respect and support to the Apostolic stream of traditions associated with Peter The Gospel appendix ch 21 is concerned to hold together both sorts of traditions and allegiances Finally the author shows how the Gospel as a whole works coherently to encourage a wider view of Christian intercommunity unity after the death of the Beloved Disciple The Problems of Jewish Christians in the Johannine Community Celestino G. Lingad, 2001 A perspective reader is struck by the harsh language of the dispute in John's Gospel as well as Jesus attitude even towards the Jews who supposedly believed in him see John 2 23 8 31 44 Almost from the outset the Johannine Jesus to speak about to speak about early on the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him 5 18 cf 7 1 25 11 53 Indeed only in the Fourth Gospel does Jesus ever ask his interlocutors Why do you seek to kill me and this not once repeatedly 7 19 8 37 40 Was this hostility really between Jesus and his contemporary Jews alone or is there another way of making sense of the Gospel data Read autobiographically as a two level drama the Gospel describes the going on in Jesus life which serves as a window for us to see what John and his Community were going through toward the end of the of the first century A D This work attempts firstly to determine who the opponents involved were and secondly their possible problem areas with or within the Johannine Community as reflected in the Fourth Gospel To this end selected passages in John 2 3 6 7 and 8 are analyzed to highlight possible answers The main difficulty seems to stem from the Christological stance of the parties involved In contrast to the opponents low Christology in the Gospel and the secessionists ultra light Christology in the Epistles Johannine high Christology sees Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth John 1 45 as The Messiah the Son of God 20 31 i e divine in the univocal sense Mature Christianity in the 21st Century Norman A. Beck, 1994 Mature Christianity is the most careful study of anti Jewish polemic of the New Testament that I have read Krister Stendahl The Firstborn of Many Donald L.
