Transcendentalist Hermeneutics Richard A. Grusin, 1991 American literary historians have viewed Ralph Waldo Emerson's resignation from the Unitarian ministry in 1832 in favor of a literary career as emblematic of a main current in American literature That current is directed toward the possession of a self that is independent and fundamentally opposed to the accoutrements of society and civilization and expresses a Transcendentalist antipathy toward all institutionalized forms of religious observance In the ongoing revision of American literary history this traditional reading of the supposed anti institutionalism of the Transcendentalists has been duly detailed and continually supported Richard A Grusin challenges both traditional and revisionist interpretations with detailed contextual studies of the hermeneutics of Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau and Theodore Parker Informed by the past two decades of critical theory Grusin examines the influence of the higher criticism of the Bible which focuses on authorship date place of origin circumstances of composition and the historical credibility of biblical writings on these writers The author argues that the Transcendentalist appeal to the authority of the self is not an appeal to a source of authority independent of institutions but to an authority fundamentally innate

Postmodernism and Japan 日本のポストモダニズム, Harry Harootunian, 1989-07-27 Postmodernism and Japan is a coherent yet diverse study of the dynamics of postmodernism as described by Lyotard Baudrillard Deleuze and Guatarri from the often startling perspective of a society bent on transforming itself into the image of Western enlightenment wealth and power This work provides a unique view of a society in transition and confronting like its models in the West the problems induced by the introduction of new forms of knowledge modes of production and social relationships

Undercurrents Helen Hok-Sze Leung, 2009-01-01 Undercurrents engages the critical rubric of queer to examine Hong Kong's screen and media culture during the transitional and immediate postcolonial period. Helen Hok Sze Leung draws on theoretical insights from a range of disciplines to reveal parallels between the crisis and uncertainty of the territory's postcolonial transition and the queer aspects of its cultural productions. Leung explores Hong Kong cultural productions: cinema, fiction, popular music, and subcultural projects, and argues that while there is no overt consolidation of gay and lesbian identities in Hong Kong culture, undercurrents of diverse and complex expressions of gender and sexual variance are widely in evidence. Undercurrents uncovers a queer media culture that has been largely overlooked by critics in the West and demonstrates the cultural vitality of Hong Kong amidst political transition. It will appeal to scholars and general readers interested in Asian studies, film and cultural studies, and sexuality and gender studies. French Twentieth Bibliography Douglas W.
