Community Participation And Empowerment In Primary Education:

Community Participation and Empowerment in Primary Education Chauncey Hodson, 2017-06 It is widely acknowledged that community participation can play a significant role in promoting primary education Community involvement in education is important for many reasons It aids in the ability to identify local education issues and to develop strategies to resolve barriers that impede access and retention and compromise quality Civic participation in the life of local schools also helps to ensure the relevance of the curriculum and its delivery It can also be an effective component in monitoring the process and outcomes of education at multiple levels In resource constrained settings community participation can also serve as an effective means of advocating for and mobilising the resources needed to move towards a high quality public system of education throughout the country It also has the potential to increase awareness levels and to bring about improvements in health and living conditions This has resulted in many efforts to bring community and school closer together as also to involve community members in the development of primary education programmes Community Participation and Empowerment in Primary Education covers a range of important issues including how community participation works in an environment characterized by deep rooted socio economic divisions the equitable distribution of participation identifying and defining the community and ensuring the genuine representation of those who are traditionally excluded from decision making in rural areas It is aimed to explore how key stakeholders eg teachers parents and government officials define community participation The studies further intended to determine factors that aide or impede participation and to recommend ways to enhance the amount and quality of participation This book will be of valuable for all those involved with education social work and the sociology of education It will be of equal value to activists administrators and NGOs

Educational Decentralization Christopher Bjork, 2007-03-23 Decentralization and Education Asian Experiences and Conceptual Contributions examines the specific ways in which decentralization policies have affected the structure and delivery of education in eleven Asian nations Written by top scholars in the field the case studies provide detailed and rich empirical evidence documenting the tensions as well as synchronisms between the ideas that form the basis of decentralization policy and the contexts into which they are introduced The high quality of this collection of essays and the careful attention to local contexts for implementation will make this book a must read for academics policy planners practitioners and students of Asia

Decentralized Systems and Distributed Computing Sandhya Avasthi, Suman Lata Tripathi, Namrata Dhanda, Satya Bhushan Verma, 2024-08-20 This book provides a comprehensive exploration of next generation internet distributed systems and distributed computing offering valuable insights into their impact on society and the future of technology The use of distributed systems is a big step forward in IT and computer science As the number of tasks that depend on each other grows a single machine can no longer handle all of them Distributed computing is better than traditional computer settings in several ways Distributed systems reduce the risks of a single point of failure making them more reliable and able to handle mistakes Most modern distributed systems are made to be scalable which means that processing power can be added on the fly to improve performance The internet of the future is meant to give us freedom and choices encourage diversity and decentralization and make it easier for people to be creative and do research By making the internet more three dimensional and immersive the metaverse could introduce more ways to use it Some people have expressed negative things about the metaverse and there is much uncertainty regarding its future Analysts in the field have pondered if the metaverse will differ much from our current digital experiences and if so whether people will be willing to spend hours per day exploring virtual space while wearing a headset This book will look at the different aspects of the next generation internet distributed systems distributed computing and their effects on society as a whole Community Participation in Elementary Education Dr. Sanjeev Kumar,2005 With reference to India Community Participation with Schools in Developing Countries Mikiko Nishimura,2020-08-04 The Sustainable Development Goals SDGs 2016 2030 set by the United Nations in 2015 restated the importance of universal primary education for all and specifically discuss quality equity and inclusion in basic education To achieve this the role of community has been emphasized and participation has become a buzzword in international development over the past several decades Despite the growing attention to community participation in school management previous literature has shown mixed results in terms of its actual practice and its impacts on quality equity and inclusion in education This book deepens the contextual understanding of community in developing countries and its involvement in schools in general and its impact on quality equity and inclusion of school education in particular By presenting various case studies in Asia Africa Latin America and a post conflict state in Europe the book analyses commonalities and differences in the ways communities are involved and cast their impacts and challenges The book contributes knowledge on the ways in which community involvement could work in developing countries the detailed processes and factors that make community participation work in different dimensions and remaining challenges that scholars and practitioners still need to be concerned and mindful in the field This book will appeal to both researchers and practitioners who are concerned about the community participation approach for the SDGs Journal of Educational Planning and Administration ,2012 Journal of Social and Economic Development ,2006 With reference to India Community Participation in Education Rajender Singh Yadav,2006 With special reference to Haryana State Social Sciences Research Journal ,2008 Social Sector in India S.
