Community Politics Charles M. Bonjean, Terry Nichols Clark, Robert L. Lineberry, 1971 Community Politics Charles M. Bonjean, Terry N. Clark, Robert L. Lineberry, 1971 Community politics: a behavioral approach, ed Charles M. Bonjean, Community Politics, 1971 Community Politics, 1971 Power and Society in Greater NY David C. Hammack, 1982-10-02 Who has ruled New York Has power become more concentrated or more widely and democratically dispersed in American cities over the past one hundred years How did New York come to have its modern physical and institutional shape Focusing on the period when New York City was transformed from a nineteenth century mercantile center to a modern metropolis David C Hammack offers an entirely new view of the history of power and public policy in the nation s largest urban community Opening with a fresh and original interpretation of the metropolitan region s economic and social history between 1890 and 1910 Hammack goes on to show how various population groups used their economic social cultural and political resources to shape the decisions that created the modern city As New York grew in size and complexity its economic and social interests were forced to compete and form alliances No single group not even the wealthy was able to exercise continuing control of urban policy Building on his account of this interplay among numerous elites Hammack concludes with a new interpretation of the history of power in New York and other American cities between 1890 and 1950 This book makes a major contribution to the study of community power of urban and regional history and of public policy And by taking the meaning and distribution of power as his theme Hammack is able to reintegrate economic social and political history in a rich and comprehensive work Lucid instructive and discerning The most commanding analysis of its subject that I know John M Blum professor of history Yale University A powerful and persuasive treatment of a marvelous subject Nelson W Polsby professor of political science University of California Berkeley Community Politics Charles M. Bonjean, Terry Nichols Clark, Robert L. Office of Technology Transfer, 1972 Black Citymakers Marcus Anthony Hunter, 2013-03-28 W E B DuBois immortalized Philadelphia s Black Seventh Ward neighborhood one of America s oldest urban black communities in his 1899 sociological study The Philadelphia Negro In the century after DuBois s study however the district has been transformed into a largely white upper middle class neighborhood Black Citymakers revisits the Black Seventh Ward documenting a century of banking and tenement collapses housing activism black led anti urban renewal mobilization and post Civil Rights political change from the perspective of the Black Seventh Warders Drawing on historical political and sociological research Marcus Hunter argues that black Philadelphians were by no means mere casualties of the large scale social and political changes that altered urban dynamics across the nation after World War II Instead Hunter shows that black Americans framed their own understandings of urban social change forging dynamic inter and intra racial alliances that allowed them to shape their own migration from the old Black Seventh Ward to emergent black urban enclaves throughout Philadelphia These Philadelphians were not victims forced from their homes they were citymakers and agents of urban change Black Citymakers explores a century of socioeconomic cultural and political history in the Black Seventh Ward creating a new understanding of the political agency of black residents leaders and activists in twentieth century urban change Library Book Catalog United States.
