Community versus Commodity Stella M. ?apek, John Ingram Gilderbloom, 1992-01-01 The Tenants' Movement Quintin Bradley, 2014-05-09 The Tenants Movement is both a history of tenant organization and mobilization and a guide to understanding how the struggles of tenant organizers have come to shape housing policy today Charting the history of tenant mobilization and the rise of consumer movements in housing it is one of the first cross cultural historical analyses of tenants organizations roles in housing policy The Tenants Movement shows both the past and future of tenant mobilization The book s approach applies social movement theory to housing studies and bridges gaps between research in urban sociology urban studies and the built environment and provides a challenging study of the ability of contemporary social movements community campaigns and urban struggles to shape the debate around public services and engage with the unfinished project of welfare reform The Encyclopedia of Housing, Second Edition Andrew T. Carswell, 2012-06-13 The second edition of the Encyclopedia of Housing has been updated to reflect the significant changes in the market that make the landscape of the industry so different today and includes articles from a fresh set of scholars who have contributed to the field over the past twelve years Place Matters Peter Dreier, John H. Mollenkopf, Todd Swanstrom, 2001 The central thesis of Place Matters is that economic segregation between rich and poor and the growing sprawl of American cities and suburbs are not solely the result of individual choices in free markets Rather these problems have been powerfully shaped by short sighted government policies Promise and Betrayal John I. Gilderbloom, R. L. Mullins Jr., 2012-02-01 Traditionally institutions of higher education have been viewed as the gateway to a better future despite the fact that so many of the neighborhoods surrounding them have been filled with hopelessness and despair In Promise and Betrayal the authors want nothing less than to start a revolution in higher education calling on partnerships between town and gown to create sustainable urban neighborhoods John I Gilderbloom and R L Mullins Jr detail how higher education institutions can play an important role in helping to revitalize our poor neighborhoods by forming partnerships with public private and nonprofit groups They advocate leaving the ivory tower and supplying the community with expert knowledge as well as creative and technical resources Building Alternative Frameworks Or Surviving in the Status Quo?
