Students for all of your research needs      Gender and the Self in Latin American Literature Emma Staniland, 2015-10-05
This book explores six texts from across Spanish America in which the coming of age story Bildungsroman offers a critique of gendered selfhood as experienced in the region's socio cultural contexts Looking at a range of novels from the late twentieth century Staniland explores thematic concerns in terms of their role in elucidating a literary journey towards agency that is towards the articulation of a socially and personally viable female gendered identity mindful of both the hegemonic discourses that constrain it and the possibility of their deconstruction and reconfiguration Myth exile and the female body are the three central themes for understanding the personal social and political aims of the Post Boom women writers whose work is explored in this volume Isabel Allende Laura Esquivel Angeles Mastretta Sylvia Molloy Cristina Peri Rossi and Zo Valdés Their adoption and adaptation of an originally eighteenth century and European literary genre is seen here to reshape the global canon as much as it works to reshape our understanding of gendered identities as socially constructed culturally contingent and open ended      Imagination Beyond Nation Eva P. Bueno, Terry Caesar, 1999-03-15 Can scholarly pursuit of soap operas and folk art actually reveal a national imagination This innovative collection features studies of iconography in Mexico telenovelas in Venezuela drama in Chile cinema in Brazil comic strips and tango in Argentina and ceramics in Peru In examining these popular arts the scholars gathered here ask the same broad questions what precisely is a national culture at the level of the popular The national idea in Latin America emerges from these pages as a problematic divided one worth sustained attention in the field of culture studies Many different arts come forth in all their richness and vitality compelling us to look listen and understand      Reframing Latin America Erik Ching, Christina Buckley, Angélica Lozano-Alonso, 2009-06-03 Providing an extensive introduction to cultural studies in general regardless of chronological or geographic focus and presenting provocative essential readings from Latin American writers of the last two centuries Reframing Latin America brings much needed accessibility to the concepts of cultural studies and postmodernism From Saussure to semiotics the authors begin by demystifying terminology then guide readers through five identity constructs including nation race and gender The readings that follow are presented with insightful commentary and encompass such themes as Civilized Folk Marry the Barbarians including José Martí's Our America and Boom Goes the Literature Magical Realism as the True Latin America featuring Elena Garro's essay It's the Fault of the Tlaxcaltecas Films such as Like Water for Chocolate are discussed in depth as well The result is a lively interdisciplinary guide for theorists and novices alike      Como Agua Para Chocolate, the Novel and Film Version Nathaniel Eli Gardner, 2009 Laura Esquivel's debut novel Como agua para chocolate took the literary World by storm with its unique yet familiar story of love and longing on the Mexican border during the perilous times of the Mexican Revolution This author's narrative seeped in magic and peppered with Mexico's culinary customs was quickly taken to the silver screen where Tita and Pedro's forbidden relationship would captivate audiences not only in its native country but around the globe cementing Esquivel's name within the ever growing canon of Latin American women writers Nathaniel Gardner introduces the reader to both the novel and the film version of Como agua para chocolate and examines not only key themes such as rebellion and tradition but also its style and main characters This narrative's acclaimed use of food and other gastronomic elements are taken into consideration as well as the significance of magic realism to this text As this novel/film combination follows each other in an unusually close manner the first part analyses many of the components the two share while the second part of this study emphasizes the cinematic mechanisms that are unique to this particular presentation of Esquivel's most widely studied creation to date
