Lott, John P. Pittman, 2008-04-15 This wide ranging multidisciplinary collection of newly commissioned articles brings together distinguished voices in the field of Africana philosophy and African American social and political thought Provides a comprehensive critical survey of African American philosophical thought Collects wide ranging multidisciplinary newly commissioned articles in one authoritative volume Serves as a benchmark work of reference for courses in philosophy social and political thought cultural studies and African American studies The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study A Companion to Contemporary Political Philosophy Robert E. Goodin, Philip Pettit, Thomas W. Pogge, 2009-02-17 This new edition of A Companion to Contemporary Political Philosophy has been extended significantly to include 55 chapters across two volumes written by some of today's most distinguished scholars New contributors include some of today's most distinguished scholars among them Thomas Pogge Charles Beitz and Michael Doyle Provides in depth coverage of contemporary philosophical debate in all major related disciplines such as economics history law political science international relations and sociology Presents analysis of key political ideologies including new chapters on Cosmopolitanism and Fundamentalism Includes detailed discussions of major concepts in political philosophy including virtue power human rights and just war Ka Osi Sọ Onye: African Philosophy in the Postmodern Era Jonathan Chimakonam, Edwin Etieyibo, 2018-02-28 This collection is about composing thought at the level of modernism and decomposing it at the postmodern level where many cocks might crow with African philosophy as a focal point It has two parts part one is titled The Journey of Reason in African Philosophy and part two is titled African Philosophy and Postmodern Thinking There are seven chapters in both parts Five of the essays are reprinted here as important selections while nine are completely new essays commissioned for this book As their titles suggest in part one African philosophy is unfolded in the manifestation of reason as embedded in modern thought while in part two it draws the effect of reason as implicated in the postmodern orientation While part one strikes at what V Y Mudimbe calls the colonising structure or the Greco European logo phallo euro centricism in thought part two bashes the excesses of modernism and partly valorises postmodernism In some chapters modernism is presented as an intellectual version of communalism characterised by the cliché our people say Our thinking is that the voice of reason is not the voice of the people but the voice of an individual The idea of this book is to open new vistas for the discipline of African philosophy African philosophy is thus presented as a disagreement discourse Without rivalry of thoughts Africa will settle for far less This gives postmodernism an important place perhaps deservedly more important than history of philosophy allocates to it It is that philosophical moment that says philosophers must cease speaking like gods in their hegemonic cultural shrines and begin to converse across borders with one another In this conversation the goal for African philosophers must not be to find final answers but to sustain the conversation which alone can extend human reason to its furthest reaches

One Hundred Philosophers Peter J. King, 2004 Presents profiles of one hundred philosophers from ancient times to the present day

Philosophy in an African Place Bruce B. Janz, 2009-01-01 Philosophy in an African Place shifts the central question of African philosophy from Is there an African philosophy to What is it to do philosophy in this African place This book both opens up new questions within the field and also establishes philosophy in place a mode of philosophy which begins from the places in which concepts have currency and shows how a truly creative philosophy can emerge from focusing on questioning listening and attention to difference
