USE WITH INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS

Read with your children the story of the blind men and the elephant. The elephant is a large animal. The blind men are people who have never seen an elephant. They are touching the elephant and trying to figure out what it is like. One person is touching the elephant's side and says it is like a wall. Another person is touching the elephant's leg and says it is like a pillar. A third person is touching the elephant's tail and says it is like a rope. A fourth person is touching the elephant's ear and says it is like a fan. A fifth person is touching the elephant's head and says it is like a tree. A sixth person is touching the elephant's back and says it is like a house. A seventh person is touching the elephant's trunk and says it is like a snake. A eighth person is touching the elephant's tail and says it is like a whip. A ninth person is touching the elephant's leg and says it is like a tree. A tenth person is touching the elephant's head and says it is like a mountain.
