,1917 Frederick Douglass and the Atlantic World Fionnghuala Sweeney, 2007-01-01 The events of Frederick Douglass s early life are well known due to his famous autobiography yet his extraordinary story continued for another fifty years beyond the struggles recounted in the Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass an American Slave One of the unexamined aspects of this life is Douglass s travels throughout the Atlantic world Lengthy excursions to other countries including Egypt Haiti and particularly Ireland had a profound effect on Douglass s writing as well as his understanding of how identity is constructed along national class and racial lines Fionnghuala Sweeney reveals that when abroad Douglass experienced entirely new responses to his status as a black man a champion of the oppressed and most tellingly as an American In addition Sweeney examines how his presence in these countries had a lasting effect on the people who attended his speeches Frederick Douglass and the Atlantic World offers a surprisingly fresh approach to a familiar figure and will appeal to scholars working in the fields of history literature and cultural studies or anyone engaged with the implications of the United States as empire American Illustrated Magazine ,1911 Exchange for the Flower, Nursery and Garden Center Trade ,1925

Gender, Nation and Women Politicians in Serbia and Kosovo Gordana Subotić, 2022-03-30 This book examines the ways women politicians in Serbia and Kosovo have imagined constructed and politicised national identity and gender while engaging with politics in the context of the democratisation process The first book to focus on the work of women inside political structures it draws on participant observation and interview material to answer the question of how women in positions of power and influence deal with their national identity and gender in societies deeply divided along ethnic lines Based on close studies of the work of a small number of women from different ethnic backgrounds the author offers comparative analyses of the ways in which women politicians of different ethnicities respond to similar events in their everyday work An original political ethnography that considers engagement of women in formal politics this volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in political structures and political participation particularly as these relate to questions of gender nation and ethnicity American Gardening ,1896 Musical News ,1902
