professionals and students The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond Rosalind Mayo, Christina Moutsou, 2016-10-04

The question of what it means to be a mother is a very contentious topic in psychoanalysis and in wider society. The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond explores our relationship to the maternal through psychoanalysis, philosophy, art, and political and gender studies. Over two years, a group of psychotherapists and members of the public met at the Philadelphia Association for a series of seminars on the Maternal. In the discussions that followed, a chasm opened up slowly and painfully between the idealised longings and fantasies we all share and the realities of maternal experiences. Here, we met the great silences of love, loss, longing, memories, desire, hatred, and ambivalence. This book is the result of this bringing together in conversation and reflections of what so often seems unsayable about the Mother. It examines how issues of personal and gender identity are shaped by the ideals of separation from the mother, the fears and anxiety of merging with the mother, and how this has often led in psychoanalysis and society to holding mothers responsible for a variety of personal and social ills and problems in which maternal vulnerability is denied and silenced. There are two main themes running throughout the book: Matricide and Maternal Subjectivity. On the theme of matricide, several contributors discuss the ways in which the discourse and narratives of the Mother have been silenced on a sociocultural level and within psychoanalysis and philosophy in favour of discourses that promote independence, autonomy, power, and the avoidance and denial of our fundamental helplessness and vulnerability. On the theme of maternal subjectivity, several chapters look at the actual experience of mothering and our relationship to our mother to highlight the ways in which the maternal is intimately connected with human subjectivity. The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond provides new and provocative thinking about the maternal and its place in various contemporary discourses. It will appeal to psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, and psychologists of different schools, scholars, and advanced students of art, gender studies, politics, and philosophy, as well as anyone interested in maternity studies and the relationship between the maternal and human subjectivity.

Work from Home Payal Kumar, Anirudh Agrawal, Pawan Budhwar, 2021-12-02

In Work from Home, researchers from around the world answer questions about the impact of working from home on employee motivation, work-life balance, and employee engagement while making a seminal contribution to the field of HRM from a work-from-home perspective.

Australia International Monetary Fund, Asia and Pacific Dept, 2024-12-23

While progress in addressing pandemic-induced macroeconomic imbalances continues, challenges remain with inflation proving persistent. Labor and housing markets are exhibiting resilience. Australia remains vulnerable to geoeconomic fragmentation risks and faces a critical transition to net zero emissions. Fostering competition and a smooth adoption of digital technologies could boost productivity.
