American Indian Literature Kimberly Wieser-Weryackwe, 2025-07-10

Discover the essential people works movements and themes in American Indian literature American Indian literature is a varied and vibrant collection of Indigenous artistic expression American Indian novelists poets essayists and critics have over the last four centuries asserted powerful forms of intellectual and artistic sovereignty writing in English while building on discrete tribal oral traditions and forms of storytelling This encyclopedia introduces readers to the key historical and contemporary figures in American Indian literature and their defining works From the fiery sermons of Methodist minister William Apress to the Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn by N Scott Momaday to the critically acclaimed and commercially successful novels of Louise Erdrich this book illustrates the indelible and influential imprint American Indians have on the landscape of American letters Readers are also introduced to the key themes and context of American Indian literature exploring how it is inextricable from American literary history the American literary canon and the narrative of American history not on the fringes of the American experience but central to it

Wait Five Minutes Shelley Ingram, Willow G. Mullins, 2023-05-18 Contributions by Emma Frances Bloomfield Sheila Bock Kristen Bradley Hannah Chapple James Deutsch Mirt Hanley Christine Hoffmann Kate Parker Horigan Shelley Ingram John Laudun Jordan Lovejoy Lena Marander Eklund Jennifer Morrison Willow G Mullins Anne Pryor Todd Richardson and Claire Schmidt The weather governs our lives It fills gaps in conversations determines our dress and influences our architecture No matter how much our lives may have moved indoors no matter how much we may rely on technology we still monitor the weather Wait Five Minutes Weatherlore in the Twenty First Century draws from folkloric literary and scientific theory to offer up new ways of thinking about this most ancient of phenomena Weatherlore is a concept that describes the folk beliefs and traditions about the weather that are passed down casually among groups of people Weatherlore can be predictive such as the belief that more black than brown fuzz on a woolly bear caterpillar signals a harsh winter It can be the familiar commentary that eases daily social interactions such as asking Is it hot or cold enough for you Other times it is simply ubiquitous If you don't like the weather wait five minutes and it will change From detailing personal experiences at picnics and suburban lawns to critically analyzing storm stories novels and flood legends contributors offer engaging multidisciplinary perspectives on weatherlore As we move further into the twenty first century an increasing awareness of climate change and its impacts on daily life calls for a folkloristic reckoning with the weather and a rising need to examine vernacular understandings of weather and climate Weatherlore helps us understand and shape global political conversations about climate change and biopolitics at the same time that it influences individual group and regional lives and identities We use weather and thus its folklore to make meaning of ourselves our groups and quite literally our world

Muslim Identities in Contemporary Televangelists' Online Discourse Shaimaa El Naggar, 2024-10-29 This book examines the discourse of Muslim televangelism in the West particularly looking at the emergence of home grown televangelists who grew up in the West and deliver their sermons in English addressing audiences in contexts such as the UK and the USA In their sermons televangelists address topics that are relevant to the everyday life of Muslims and Muslim youth such as friendship marriage and the misrepresentation of Islam Muslims in mass media This book explores contemporary Muslim televangelism and its manifestations in other forms of digital religion including YouTube websites and social media which mediate religious content Using a Critical Discourse Studies approach the author explores the power structures underpinning the popularity of Muslim televangelism investigates the linguistic strategies used by Muslim televangelists to construct their identities online and analyses how Islam and Muslims are represented in their sermons This book will be of interest to religious studies media studies and discourse studies scholars and to anyone interested in the topic of Islam Muslims in the West in the contemporary age A birthday present Gleb Karpinsky, 2025-09-24 This is the true story of a couple who were forced to break up at a young age due to lack of money and inexperience in sexual relations Each of the former spouses has their own destiny In search of happiness she leaves for Spain trying to integrate into the environment In desperation he leaves for a remote village hoping in vain that he can earn a lot of money there In 15 years they will meet on her fortieth birthday But what would he give her And will they be together later Sounding Our Way Home Susan Miyo Asai, 2024-01-18 A product of twenty five years of archival and primary research Sounding Our Way Home Japanese American Musicking and the Politics of Identity narrates the efforts of three generations of Japanese Americans to reach home through musicking Using ethnomusicology as a lens Susan Miyo Asai examines the musical choices of a population that historically is considered outside the racial and ethnic boundaries of American citizenship Emphasizing the notion of national identity and belonging the volume provokes a discussion about the challenges of nation building in a democratic society Asai addresses the politics of music interrogating the ways musicking functions as a performance of social cultural and political identification for Japanese Americans in the United States Musicking is an inherently political act at the intersection of music identity and politics particularly if it involves expressing one's ethnicity and or race Asai further investigates how Japanese American ethnic identification and cultural practices relate to national belonging Musicking cultivates a narrative of a shared history and aesthetic between performers and listeners The discourse situates not only Japanese Americans but all Asians into the Black white binary of race relations in the United States Sounding Our Way Home contributes to the ongoing struggle for acceptance and equal representation for people of color in the US A history of Japanese American musicking across three generations the book unveils the social and political discrimination that nonwhite immigrants and their offspring continue to face when it comes to finding acceptance in US society and culture The American Philatelist ,2009 Chicago Tribune Index ,2007 School Library Journal ,2010 Newsweek Samuel Thurston Williamson, Raymond Moley, Malcolm Muir, Rex Smith, Joseph Becker Phillips, 2006 The Times Index ,2012 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement The New York Times Index ,2008 New Statesman and Nation ,1951
