Proven Viral Content Ideas Ideas For Dads:

Money and Marketing in the Art World Henrik Hagtvedt, 2024-10-21 How does the art market choose its winners thereby also deciding what millions of visitors to galleries and museums will view year after year Whereas art historical writing and contemporary commentary tend to highlight the efforts of specific artists this book illustrates how money and marketing in combination with general trends play decisive roles in shaping the art world and in propelling specific artists and artworks to positions of prominence Today perhaps more than ever before the high profile art world is primarily shaped by buyers and those who cater to buyers The actual artists although most visible to the public tend to play a secondary role The time seems particularly ripe for transparency about how the art world works given the growth in the art market media attention on and popular interest in high priced art and controversy surrounding public funding for art and the value of art for contemporary society With a combination of marketplace observations marketing insights and relevant research findings this book contributes to increased transparency while providing thought provoking digressions and anecdotes along the way Money and Marketing in the Art World offers an accessible analysis of the art market for scholars and graduate students across arts marketing and management as well as for those more broadly interested in art and business Authorship

Contested Amy E. Robillard, Ron Fortune, 2015-06-12 This volume explores a dimension of authorship not given its due in the critical discourse to this point authorship contested Much of the existing critical literature begins with a text and the proposition that the text has an author The debates move from here to questions about who the author is whether or not the author's identity is even relevant and what relationship she or he does and does not have to the text The authors contributing to this collection however ask about circumstances surrounding efforts to prevent authors from even being allowed to have these questions asked of them from even being identified as authors They ask about the political cultural economic and social circumstances that motivate a prospective audience to resist an author's efforts to have a text published read and discussed Particularly noteworthy is the range of everyday rhetorical situations in which contesting authorship occurs from the production of a corporate document to the publication of fan fiction Each chapter also focuses on particular instances in which authorship has been contested demonstrating how theories about various forms of contested authorship play out in a range of events from the complex issues surrounding peer review to authorship in the age of intelligent machines Inner Fortress Conrad Riker, 101-01-01 Tired of Being Shamed for Your Strength Reclaim the Sacred Power of Masculinity Why does society demonize the very traits that protect families How do you lead with conviction when culture calls your purpose toxic Are you exhausted by being told vulnerability is strength only to be despised for showing it Exposes the double bind of modern misandry punished for masculinity AND weakness Revives God's design men as leaders women as helpers not competitors Trains you to spot cultural Marxism poisoning faith family and brotherhood Replaces victimhood with dominion through scripture discipline and action Reveals why gender equality destroys society's foundation Builds unshakeable
