Cases on Establishing Effective Collaborations in Academic Libraries Piorun, Mary E., Raboin, Regina Fisher, 2022-10-07 The forming and nurturing of new partnerships and collaborations is a critical component of librarianship Academic libraries have a long history of collaboration within the library across their institutions and in their local communities. However, forming new partnerships can be time consuming and at times frustrating, leaving important opportunities, connections, and projects unrealized. Cases on Establishing Effective Collaborations in Academic Libraries presents case studies on effective collaborations in a variety of settings with different objectives, staffing levels, and budgets that have proven to be successful in creating and maintaining strong and productive partnerships. It identifies and shares the role of the academic library in developing effective partnerships and collaborations within academia and the broader community. Covering topics such as controlled digital lending, research computing, and college readiness enhancement, this premier reference source is a vital resource for librarians and libraries, consortiums, university administrators, students, and educators of higher education, community leaders, researchers, and academicians.
