Cosmos And Hearth A Cosmopolites Viewpoint:

Cosmos & Hearth Yi-fu Tuan, 1996 In a volume that represents the culmination of his life s work in considering the relationship between culture and landscape Tuan argues that cosmos and hearth are two scales that anchor what it means to be fully and happily human Hearth is our house and neighborhood family and kinfolk habit and custom Cosmos by contrast is the larger reality world civilization and humankind Tuan addresses the extraordinary revival of interest in the hearth in recent decades examining both the positive and negative effects of this renewed concern Among the beneficent outcomes has been a revival of ethnic culture and sense of place Negative repercussions abound however manifested as an upsurge in superstition excessive pride in ancestry and custom and a constricted worldview that when taken together can inflame local passions leading at times to violent conflict from riots in U S cities to wars in the Balkans In Cosmos and Hearth Tuan takes the position that we need to embrace both the sublime and the humble drawing what is valuable from each Illustrating the importance of both cosmos and hearth with examples from his country of birth China and from his home of the past forty years the United States Tuan proposes a revised conception of culture the cosmopolitan hearth that has the coziness but not the narrowness and bigotry of the traditional hearth Tuan encourages not only being thoroughly grounded in one s own culture but also the embracing of curiosity about the world Optimistic and deeply human Cosmos and Hearth lays out a path to being at home in the cosmos BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Textures of Place Paul C. Adams, Steven D. Hoelscher, Karen E. Till, 2001 A fresh and far ranging interpretation of the concept of place this volume begins with a fundamental tension of our day as communications technologies help create a truly global economy the very political economic processes that would seem to homogenize place actually increase the importance of individual localities which are exposed to global flows of investment population goods and pollution Place no less today than in the past is fundamental to how the world works The contributors to this volume distinguished scholars from geography art history philosophy anthropology and American and English literature investigate the ways in which place is embedded in everyday experience its crucial role in the formation of group and individual identity and its ability to reflect and reinforce power relations Their essays draw from a wide array of methodologies and perspectives including feminism ethnography poststructuralism ecocriticism and landscape ichnography to examine themes as diverse as morality and imagination attention and absence personal and group identity social structure home nature and cosmos

Inhabited Spaces Nicole Guenther Discenza,2017-01-18 We tend to think of early medieval people as unsophisticated about geography because their understandings of space and place often differed from ours yet theirs were no less complex Anglo Saxons conceived of themselves as living at the centre of a cosmos that combined order and plenitude two principles in a constant state of tension In Inhabited Spaces Nicole Guenther Discenza examines a variety of Anglo Latin and Old English texts to shed light on Anglo Saxon understandings of space Anglo Saxon models of the universe featured a spherical earth at the centre of a spherical universe ordered by God They sought to shape the universe into knowable places from where the earth stood in the cosmos to the kingdoms of different peoples and to the intimacy of the hall Discenza argues that Anglo Saxon works both construct orderly place and illuminate the limits of human spatial control Running Cultures John Bale, 2004-06-01 Running is one of the world's most widely practiced sports and recreations but until now it has intended to elude serious study outside of the natural sciences John Bale brings the sport into the realm of the humanities by drawing on sources including literature poetry film art and sculpture as well as statistics and training manuals to highlight the tensions ambiguities and complexities that lie hidden beneath the commonplace notion of running The text explores both local and personal as well as communal and global aspects of running and its practitioners It examines the streets tracks and stadiums where athletes run the races in which they compete and the running relationships such as exist between the athlete and the coach between runners and between the athlete and spectator It discusses the importance of speed and records how running has been used to symbolise resistance and transgression and the extent to which it can be associated with a healthy lifestyle Running Cultures provides new ways of seeing a familiar sporting phenomenon it will appeal to both students and researchers with an interest in running in particular and sport and leisure cultures more generally Looking with Robert Gardner Rebecca Meyers, William Rothman, Charles Warren, 2016-09-20 During his lifetime Robert Gardner 1925 2014 was often pigeonholed as an ethnographic filmmaker then criticized for failing to conform to the genre's conventions he radically challenged With the release of his groundbreaking film Dead Birds in 1963 Gardner established himself as one of the world's most extraordinary independent filmmakers working in a unique border area between ethnography the essay film and poetic experimental cinema Richly illustrated Looking with Robert Gardner assesses the range and magnitude of Gardner's achievements not only as a filmmaker but also as a still photographer writer educator and champion of independent cinema The contributors give critical attention to Gardner's most ambitious films such as Dead Birds 1963 New Guinea Rivers of Sand 1975 Ethiopia and Forest of Bliss 1986 India as well as lesser known films that equally exemplify his mode of seeking anthropological understanding through artistic means They also attend to his films about artists including his self depiction in Still Journey OnM 2011 to his roots in experimental film and his employment of experimental procedures and to his support of independent filmmakers through the Harvard Film Study Center and the television series Screening Room which provided an opportunity for numerous important film and video artists to present and discuss their work reading understanding and application of theory and its affect on our interpretation of texts In fusion theory challenges efforts to see theory as inhibiting by presenting an approach that is innovative eclectic and subtle in order to draw out competing and constellating ideas and opinions This collected volume of essays examines In fusion theory and demonstrates

Batinski, 2004 How ordinary people use the past to shape their sense of self and community People know who they are by fixing themselves in place and time They keep the past in numerous ways not simply by writing histories but also by telling stories creating pictures collecting memorabilia preserving old homes and tracing genealogies As Michael C Batinski shows in this imaginative study the pastkeepers of Deerfield Massachusetts have long illustrated this human yearning to connect with past and place For five centuries people in this small New England town have passed stories from one generation to the next preserved homes and established one of the nation's first historical societies and local history museums Like many small places in the American landscape Batinski points out Deerfield does not fit into the history we learn in textbooks With the exception of the famous French and Indian raid on the town in 1704 nothing of national significance has happened there Yet that has not diminished the interest of local inhabitants in establishing and maintaining a vital connection to the past Different groups from Native Pocumtuck to Puritan settlers to the grandchildren of Pol The Lightning Field Kenneth Baker, 2008 Preface Lynne Cooke 1978 Kenneth Baker 1994 2007 Kenneth Baker Or Profane Use of Feng Shui in Residential Communities Jane Fong Mark, 1999 Space and the Everyday Naomi Roslyn Environment & Planning ,2008 Autobiographies by Americans of Color, 1995-2000 Deborah Stuhr Galtz,2000 Iwabuchi, Rebecca Stuhr, 2003 This annotated bibliography covers the years 1995 through 2000 which saw a tremendous output of autobiographical material by Americans of color Publishers released works by prominent civil rights leaders musicians entertainers athletes as well as unsung heroes with the courage to strive for a better life This is the long awaited follow up to the first volume of the Autobiographies by Americans of Color bibliography series The Publishers Weekly
