Through the Eyes of Knotty 2 Betty Malone Shells, 2017-01-06 Children live and learn to adjust to transitions in their homes and their communities whether the conditions are conducive or not Children are product of their parents When the parents hurt the hurt has a tendency of trickling down to the children whether the children want it or not Parents often forget that the children have feelings and they hurt also Whatever happens in the family unit has an impact on the children In fact it affects the entire family The children often blame themselves for separations and divorces Children should be children and not be placed in an adult role because of mistakes made by parents Parent separations are heartfelt situations and hard jolts to the children There is something called missed childhood and lasting affects placed on children emotionally This book will enlighten the reader on how to handle misfortunes and make the best of any given situation in the family and in the community A child should enjoy his or her childhood Because when they lose it it can never be found again Childhood should be enjoyed without being pressured into adults Unreconciled Arthur N. Dunning,2021-06-01 How do well meaning people help a community move beyond its past when confronted by those who hold ingrained stereotypes profit from maintaining the status quo or are filled with antipathy toward others This book tells the story of how a Black university president tried to do just that when he led the first non court ordered merger of an historically Black university with an historically white two year college in Albany Georgia Arthur Art N Dunning came of age in the Black Belt of Alabama during the Jim Crow era Among many pivotal experiences he was part of a group of student athletes who helped to integrate Bear Bryant s University of Alabama football team in 1967 The values instilled in him by his family and those in his close knit community together with life experiences through education and from living working and traveling abroad over more than forty years as an educator shaped his approach to leading Albany State University an HBCU through its 2016 merger with all white Darton State College The community s reaction to the merger proved to be an extreme example of what our nation is experiencing today The perceived threat of embracing change while racially integrating two institutions brought out painful stereotypes racial orthodoxy tribalism suspicion and conspiracy theories It peeled away a veneer of racial harmony and exposed unhealthy patterns of behavior and entrenched beliefs held by community members of both races Dunning shares here the hard but valuable leadership lessons learned when his race and his personal southern history intersected with a university and city that were abruptly forced to acknowledge their own history and were challenged to envision a different future Young at Heart E.
