The Commonwealth Yearbook, 1967 Redefining the Pacific? Ian Frazer, 2017-05-15 This comprehensive volume examines the future effectiveness of regional institutions as well as key questions concerning the attempts to overcome ongoing serious problems of security, governance and poor economic performance in the Pacific. What is obvious from this collection is that a new and stronger commitment to overcoming national problems is required through regional cooperation. The volume is highly suited to courses on international political economy, security and regional cooperation.

History's Fools David Martin Jones, 2020-03-09 The end of the Cold War announced a new world order. Liberal democracy prevailed, ideological conflict abated and world politics set off for the promised land of a secular cosmopolitan market-friendly end of history. Or so it seemed. Thirty years later, this unipolar worldview premised on shared values, open markets, open borders and abstract social justice lies in tatters. What happened? David Martin Jones examines the progressive ideas behind liberal Western practice since the end of the twentieth century at home and abroad. This mentality, he argues, took an excessively long view of the future and a short view of the past, abandoning politics in favour of ideas and failing to address or understand rejection of liberal norms by non-Western others. He explores the inevitable consequences of this liberal hubris: political and economic confusion with the chaotic results we have seen. Finally, he advocates a return to more sceptical political thinking with prudent statecraft abroad and defence of political order at home in order to rescue the West from its widely advertised demise. History's Fools is a timely account of the failed project to shape the world in the West's image and an incisive call for a return to true politics.

Financing Development Michele Fratianni, 2016-04-15 The critical challenge of financing development and sustainability is a key focus for the world's international financial institutions led by the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank and above all the

G8 This volume assesses the current practice and perspectives of the major developed world countries that dominate the boards of the IMF and the World Bank and comprise the G8 It looks at the prospects for meeting the Millennium Development Goals in the most impoverished region of Africa the way trade and finance instruments can help and how the challenges of energy security and climate change control will affect the results This volume offers in depth analysis of how the Millennium Development Goals are to be met North to South resource transfers the challenges of controlling climate control beyond Kyoto In sum this volume provides a critical and creative examination of what the G8 governments especially at and after the 2005 Gleneagles summit have done and what they should do to promote development and sustainability
