Communist Agriculture Farming In The Far East And Cuba:

Communist Agriculture Karl-Eugen Wädekin,2004-01-14 A fascinating comparative study of how the agricultural experience of the Soviet Bloc has shaped and sometimes hindered development in the rest of the communist world this book examines the agrarian policies of China Mongolia Vietnam and Cuba and provides an account of agricultural development in socialist economies which focuses on both the historical and contemporary aspects of this development Socialist Economies and the Transition to the Market Ian Jeffries,1993-05-27 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Historical Dictionary of Mongolia Alan Sanders,2003-04-09 This edition offers detail on the history of the Mongol Empire Against the background of relations with Tibet it adopts a focus on the spread of Tibetan Buddhism to Mongolia There is a broader approach to Mongolian cultural affairs with expanded entri Economic Developments in Contemporary China Ian Jeffries,2010-07-23 This book provides a comprehensive and detailed overview of contemporary economic developments in China Key topics include the growth of the market the market replacing central planning the reform of state owned enterprises the open door policy This is the companion volume to Political Developments in Contemporary China A Guide also published by Routledge Mongolia Ian Jeffries,2007-03-16 This book provides a full account of the key political and economic events in Mongolia focusing on the period since the establishment of the Soviet backed Mongolian People s Republic in 1924 and the transition towards a democratic free market system since the collapse of the Soviet Union The New Russia Ian Jeffries,2013-12-19 The rapid changes in Russia since the collapse of the Soviet Union are often bewildering with many frequent highly significant changes in the different sectors of the economy and the political system There have been frequent changes of personnel in government and economic management and many changes have been reversed and sometimes forgotten or at other times reinstated What happened when Who was responsible for what Did such a change in one sector precede or follow a particular change elsewhere These are points not easily remembered This book provides full details of the many changes and enables sense to be made of what would otherwise be a confusing situation Developments are arranged chronologically by sector and the book is unusual in extensively chronicling both economic and political developments and the crucial connections between them There is a generous introduction and overview to help the reader find his or her way around The material covers the period up to late autumn 2000 and thus offers a valuable guide to policies in the Putin era Food Activism Carole Counihan,Valeria Siniscalchi,2013-12-05 Across the globe people are challenging the agro industrial food system and its exploitation of people and resources reduction of local food varieties and negative health consequences In this collection leading international anthropologists explore food activism across the globe to show how people speak to negotiate or cope with power through food Who are the actors of food activism and what forms of agency do they enact What kinds of economy exchanges and market relations do they practice and promote How are they organized and what are their scales of political action and power relations Each chapter explores why and how people choose food as a means of forging social and economic justice covering diverse forms of food activism from individual acts by consumers or producers to organized social groups or movements The case studies embrace a wide geographical spectrum including Cuba Sri Lanka Egypt Mexico Italy Canada France Colombia Japan and the USA This is the first book to examine food activism in diverse local national and transnational settings making it essential reading for students and scholars in anthropology and other fields interested in food economy politics and social change
