Community Care Meeting The Challenge Social Work Education And The Community Care Revolution:

Meeting the Challenge Steve Trevillion, Peter Beresford, 1996      Innovative Education and Training for Care Professionals Rachel Pierce, 2000 This positive book brings together current good practice in education and training for care professionals around a central theme of involving service users and improving the quality of their care The contributors set out a strategy for the teaching of theory and practice to care professionals in the context of changing policy and practice in agencies and in higher education Helpful guidance is offered to education and training providers in universities and agencies on the preparation of care professionals for the new millenium and beyond Topics addressed within the book include international comparisons research teaching the bridging of vocational professional and academic frameworks user involvement assessing professional competence teaching anti discriminatory practice While drawing primarily from social work this book takes an interprofessional approach and will be essential reading for all health and care education providers Rachel Pierce and Jenny Weinstein have brought together academics researchers and practitioners to reflect with them both positively and critically on a broad range of contemporary educational developments thus providing a sound analysis to shape future arrangements for quality professional education and training      Practice Learning in the Caring Professions Dave Evans, 2016-12-05 Dave Evans makes a convincing case that practice learning occupies a central role in the education and training of the caring professions In doing so he affirms the activities of many service agency staff involved in practice teaching and assessment and offers them clear models and illustrative examples to aid their development He also explores ways in which practice learning and assessment can be effectively developed in academic settings      The New Politics of Welfare Bill Jordan, 1998-09-24 This critical and highly topical introduction to the current debates and politics surrounding welfare reform in the United Kingdom and the United States explains the origins and main tenets of the Blair Clinton orthodoxy Central to the book is an examination of this orthodoxy s appeal to the concept of social justice Bill Jordan demonstrates how values derived from the family and voluntary associations are in danger of running counter to the more fundamental principles of liberal democracy and the requirements of transnational economic exchange He links the new politics of welfare to liberal and communitarian theories of citizenship and social justice and assesses the broader prospects for European social policy in the struggle over economic and political integration For more than a decade Bill Jordan has been one of our most thoughtful and independent thinkers on the future of welfare Anyone who wants to know more about what is happening to global welfare and why and how it should be changed should read this book Chris Pierson Department of Politics University of Nottingham      Whitaker's Books in Print , 1998      New Directions in Professional Higher Education Tom Bournier, Tim Katz, David Watson, 2000 This text exemplifies the growing involvement of universities in professional education at its highest level It also demonstrates the increasing importance of education for the professions in the work of universities      She Dances to Different Drums Kath Gillespie-Sells, Mildrette Hill, Bree Robbins, 1998 Little research has been undertaken into disabled women's sexuality what there is has been carried out largely by non disabled professionals it is not surprising then that disabled women's sexuality remains a controversial subject capable of provoking extreme reaction misunderstanding and prejudice This study tells the stories of many disabled women Some are painful and distressing concerning sexual abuse and damaging isolation Others are funny and uplifting All dispel the myth that disabled women are asexual and have no interest in forging sexual and personal relationships Funded by the King's Fund grant the study identifies the key issues for disabled women who are black lesbian or heterosexual
