Community In The American West:

Community in the American West Stephen Tchudi, 1999 This work brings together photographers poets and essayists to explore historical and contemporary views of community in the American West Writers reject the tradition of judging western communities in terms of established values from the Eastern US and Europe and they develop dimensions of the concept of community by studying such diverse settings and populations as the coal country of Colorado the southern California suburbs and the lives of ethnic and cultural minorities Although the writers specifically discuss community in the West the message deriving from the collection is a broader one that links this book to long standing traditions in the humanities this is a book about the community of humankind The Portable Community Robert Owen Gardner, 2020-02-17 This book explores the various ways in which individuals use music and culture to understand and respond to changes in their natural and built environments Drawing on over 15 years of ethnographic fieldwork interviews and participant observation the author develops the thesis that the relationships networks and intimate forms of social interaction in the portable community cultivated at bluegrass festival events are significant cultural formations that shape participants relationships to their localities With specific attention to the ways in which the strength of these relationships are translated into meaningful sites of community identity place and action following devastating local floods that destroyed homes and businesses displacing residents for years The Portable Community Place and Displacement in Bluegrass Festival Life sheds light on the strength of such communities when tested and under external threat A study of the central role of arts and music in grappling with social and environmental change including their role in facilitating disaster relief and recovery this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in symbolic interactionism the sociology of music culture and the sociology of disaster Museums and Communities Viv Golding, Jen Walklate, 2019-01-22 This volume presents seventeen essays critically reflecting on the collaborative work of the contemporary ethnographic museum with diverse communities It invites the reader to think about the roles and values of museums internationally particularly the wide range of creative approaches that can progress dialogue and intercultural understanding in an age of migration that is marked by division and distrust Against a troubling global background of prejudice and misunderstanding where elections are increasingly returning right wing governments this timely book considers the power of an inclusive and transformative museum space specifically the movements from static sites where knowledge is transmitted to passive audiences towards potential contact zones where diverse community voices and visibilities are raised and new knowledge s actively constructed Agricultural and Industrial Progress in Canada , 1922 Where is the West? Gordon Morris Bakken, Brenda Farrington, 2000 This anthology examines Love s Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs

Environmental Protection Policy and Experience in the U.S. and China's Western Regions Joel J. Kassiola,Sujian Guo,Jijiao Zhang,2010-06-14 China is a multiethnic country with vast territory a land of diverse ecosystems With the drive for industrialization in China and the implementation of western grand development strategy in western regions both governments and people face great challenges in environmental protection and sustainable use of biodiversity resources as a result of growing interaction between human activities and natural environment To meet the challenges governments in these regions need to adopt a series of important policy measures not only to reduce industrial emissions but also to return farmland to forests and pasture to grasslands and to implement measures of ecological migration to reduce human activities in ecological conservation areas In this regard China must not only learn profound lessons from industrialized countries but also search for international cooperation The United States provides some good comparative case studies on the environmental protection grassroots environmental management and conservation policies in western regions This book attempts to address key questions about Chinese and U S environmental policies by looking at historical development of environmental protection and current environmental policy in the western regions of the two countries      Historical Outlook ,1922      Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States.

together these hard working members of society contributed to the development of towns across the West The essays in this volume show how oral history increases understanding of work and community in the twentieth century American West In many cases occupations brought people together in myriad ways The Latino workers who picked lemons together in Southern California report that it was baseball and Cinco de Mayo Queen contests that united them Mormons in Fort Collins Colorado say that building a church together bonded them together In separate essays African Americans and women describe how they fostered a sense of community in Las Vegas Native Americans detail the Indian economy in Northern California As these essays demonstrate the history of the American West is the story of small towns and big cities places both isolated and heavily populated It includes groups whose history has often been neglected Sometimes western history has mirrored the history of the nation at other times it has diverged in unique ways Oral history adds a dimension that has often been missing in writing a comprehensive history of the West Here an array of oral historians including folklorists librarians and public historians record what they have learned from people who have in their own ways made history      Town
