

What is Community Partnership?

Community partnerships for volunteer programs are reciprocal relationships where volunteer programs receive necessary support + partners are able to become a part of the organization's mission.

Through giving time, resources, skill-volunteerism, and cause + program promotion, partners engage in meeting vital community needs with volunteer programs.

Building lasting community partnerships for your volunteer program allows the relationship + participation to grow and deepen with time. The community benefits through a sustained commitment to your cause.
