Community Democracy And The Environment Learning To Share The Future:

Community, Democracy, and the Environment Jane A. Grant, 2003-09-29 Insuring the continued integrity of the global environment may now be linked to the ability of humans to strengthen existing and develop new opportunities and institutions in which to democratically explore shared ethics about the future The nature of the ties we have to one another in our communities the quality of the attachments we have to our political institutions and the presence or absence of public spaces within which to deliberate about our deepest concerns may have profound implications for the biosphere Community Democracy and the Environment looks the changing character of community and polity in the United States The book proposes the development of a realm of civil ethics where citizens democratically deliberate about values reviews the changing orientations of Americans to the environment and environmental policy and examines why a new direction in energy policy is critical to our environmental future The book concludes with some directions for how humans may better learn to share the future with each other and the other species with whom we share the planet Community,

Democracy, and the Environment Jane A. Grant, 2003 Community Democracy and the Environment looks at the changing character of community and polity in the United States Jane A Grant proposes the development of a realm of civil ethics where citizens democratically discuss values reviews the changing orientations of Americans to the environment and environmental policy and examines why a new direction in energy policy is critical to our environmental future Grant concludes with some directions for how we may better learn of share the future with each other and the many species that share our planet BOOK JACKET The New American Social Compact Jane A. Grant, 2008-02-28 The New American Social Compact examines the need to redefine the social compact in twenty first century America Grant explores the two components of this compact the rights and obligations of citizenship as well as what she sees as the four substantive areas that are critical to realizing a new social compact in America Grant proposes a new social compact that would honor the expansion of civil political and social rights in America and would integrate these rights within a new civic procedural ethos clarifying our obligations to each other future generations other nations and other species Energy, Power and Protest

on the Urban Grid Andres Luque-Ayala, Jonathan Silver, 2016-04-28 Providing a global overview of experiments around the transformation of cities electricity networks and the social struggles associated with this change this book explores the centrality of electricity infrastructures in the urban configuration of social control segregation integration resource access and poverty alleviation Through multiple accounts from a range of global cities this edited collection establishes an agenda that recognises the uneven and often historical geographies of urban electricity networks prompting attempts to re wire the infrastructure configurations of cities and predicating protest and resistance from residents and social movements alike Through a robust theoretical engagement with established work around the politics of urban infrastructures the book frames the transformation of electricity systems in the context of power and resistance across urban life drawing links between environmental and social forms of sustainability Such an agenda can provide both insight and inspiration in seeking to build fairer and more sustainable urban futures that bring electricity infrastructures to the fore of academic and policy attention

Local Energy Autonomy Fanny Lopez, Margot Pellegrino, Olivier Coutard, 2019-04-26 In recent years interest for local energy production supply and consumption has increased in academic and public debates In particular contemporary energy transition discourses and strategies often emphasize the search for increased local energy autonomy a phrase which can refer to a diverse range of configurations both in terms of the spaces and scales of the local territory considered and in terms of what is meant by energy autonomy This book explores policies projects and processes aimed at increased local energy autonomy with a particular focus on their spatial infrastructural and political dimensions In doing so the authors Sabine Barles Bruno Barroca Guilhem Blanchard Benoit Boutaud Arwen Colell Gilles Debizet Ariane Debourdeau Laure Dobigny Florian Dupont Z lia Hampikian Sylvie Jaglin Allan Jones Raphael M nard Alain Nada Angela Pohlmann Cyril Roger Lacan Eric Vidalenc improve our understanding of the always partial and controversial processes of energy relocation that articulate forms of local metabolic self sufficiency socio technical decentralization and political empowerment Comprising fifteen chapters the book is divided into four parts Governance and Actors Urban Projects and Energy Systems Energy Communities and The Challenges of Energy Autonomy
