Community Psychiatry In Action:

Community Psychiatry in Action Peter Tyrer, 1995-05-25 This book first published in 1995 discusses the evidence behind changes in practice for psychiatry in the community Community Psychology Julian Rappaport, 1977 Community Psychiatry Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry. Committee on Psychiatry and Community, 1983 Community Mental Health Bruce Denner, 1973 The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in Psychology Carla Willig, Wendy Stainton Rogers, 2017-03-31 One of our bestselling handbooks The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in Psychology is back for a second edition Since the first edition qualitative research in psychology has been transformed Responding to this existing chapters have been updated and three new chapters introduced on Thematic Analysis Interpretation and Netnography With a focus on methodological progress throughout the chapters are organised into three sections Section One Methods Section Two Perspectives and Techniques Section Three Applications In the field of psychology and beyond this handbook will constitute a valuable resource for both experienced qualitative researchers and novices for many years to come Social and Community Psychiatry Stelios Stylianidis, 2016-05-14 This book presents the basic theoretical and historical concepts and it describes current perspectives and data focusing on good practices in community psychiatry in Greece and in other parts of Europe Concepts such as the biopsychosocial model psychiatric reform psychosocial rehabilitation and the recovery model as well as new case management models are approached from a critical anthropocentric perspective The current socioeconomic crisis in Europe brings with it new realities in mental health systems New forms of social suffering are forcing the psychiatric community to re examine what is considered normal In order to respond to the complexity of the newly emerging needs social and community psychiatry has been compelled to broaden the objectives of intervention and research alike developing new and dynamic relations with complementary scientific fields such as social anthropology psychoanalysis and microeconomics The present work is the result of collaboration between professionals from across these different fields Community Mental Health Centers, Perspectives of the Seventies , 1981 Comprehensive Emergency Mental Health Care Joseph J. Zealberg, Alberto B. Santos, Jackie A. Puckett, 2003 This is a reprint of a previously published work It deals with what was in 1996 state of the art community based mobile emergency mental health services and treatment whether in the street the patient s home a temporary shelter the emergency room or a clinic American Handbook of Psychiatry: Child and adolescent psychiatry, sociocultural and community psychiatry Silvano Arieti, 1974 Innovative Approaches for Difficult-to-treat Populations Scott W. Henggeler, 1997 Innovative Approaches for Difficult to Treat Populations makes recommendations for developing and disseminating innovative mental health services It is geared toward clinicians administrators and policy makers struggling to develop both clinically effective and cost effective mental health and substance abuse services and it focuses on services for individuals who use the highest proportion of mental health resources and for whom traditional services have not been effective These target populations include youth with serious behavioral and emotional disturbances and adults with severe and persistent mental illnesses The innovative approaches reviewed include diverse treatment methods for differing clinical populations These varied approaches have several common elements Social ecological theory frameworks An emphasis on delivering flexible comprehensive pragmatic and goal oriented interventions in persons natural environments Increased accountability on the part of service providers The transition from centralized to community based care is discussed and normalizing a patient s daily routine as an important factor in the success of state of the art community support programs is emphasized Innovative Approaches for Difficult to Treat Populations offers mental health professionals and students a firsthand look at the future direction of clinical services Policy issues necessary to developing and disseminating progressive treatments are addressed including the downsizing of state psychiatric hospitals strategies for reforming state mental hospital systems and ethical issues in research on child and adolescent mental disorders

Community Psychiatry Douglas H. Bennett, Hugh Lionel Freeman, 1991 This work presents psychiatry as essentially a branch of medicine looking at the subject from the standpoint of scientific investigation rather than from an ideological or idealistic one The topics covered range from a psychosocial view of depression to residential care

Handbook of Community Psychiatry and Community Mental Health Leopold Bellak, 1964

The General Practice of Community Psychiatry Ralph Crawshaw, 1969

Everyday Ethics Paul Brodwin, 2013 This book explores the moral lives of mental health clinicians serving the most marginalized individuals in the US healthcare system Drawing on years of fieldwork in a community psychiatry outreach team Brodwin traces the ethical dilemmas and everyday struggles of front line providers On the street in staff room debates or in private confessions these psychiatrists and social workers confront ongoing challenges to their self image as competent and compassionate advocates At times they openly question the coercion and forced dependency built into the current system of care At other times they justify their use of extreme power in the face of loud opposition from clients This in depth study exposes the fault lines in today s community psychiatry It shows how people working deep inside the system struggle to maintain their ideals and manage a chronic sense of futility Their commentaries about the obligatory and the forbidden also suggest ways to bridge formal bioethics and the realities of mental health practice The experiences of these clinicians pose a single overarching question how should we bear responsibility for the most vulnerable among us
