Digital Nomads Rachael A. Woldoff, Rachael Woldoff, Robert C. Litchfield, 2021 In Digital Nomads Rachael Woldoff and Robert Litchfield take readers into an expatriate digital nomad community in Bali Indonesia to better understand this growing demographic of younger workers From dozens of interviews and several stints living in a digital nomad hub Woldoff and Litchfield detail the factors that drove this set of workers to flee their conventional lives in search of meaningful work community and opportunities for personal development on their own terms The Change Agent Hernan

Murdock, 2023-11-01 John Taylor has been hired to transform the underperforming internal audit unit at InSports The auditors are not reviewing what the audit committee and executive leadership consider essential for the organization's success their methodology is subpar and their relationships with their clients are strained The audit committee has been patient but not anymore Their mandate is clear make clear improvements in one year or the function will be outsourced This is the story of a visionary leader who needs a strategy to transform processes and deliver better results for stakeholders at all levels within the organization The audit committee all levels of management and employees expect more from internal audit Now John must lead the group through 12 challenging months as they focus on what matters most when performing audit and advisory services They must communicate results faster and better leverage existing quality control and data analytics techniques and with every encounter help the organization address strategic operational compliance and financial risks With similarities to The Goal and The Phoenix Project and leveraging Kotter's 8 Step Process for Leading Change follow John and the internal audit team from Boston to New York San Francisco London and Buenos Aires as they address almost insurmountable challenges in their transformation journey The Social and Legal Impact of Autonomous Vehicles Guy

Seidman, Aviv Gaon, 2025-01-09 This book explores the legal and societal implications of autonomous vehicles AVs drawing on historical examples of disruptive technologies and the complex process of their adoption Employing broad interdisciplinary perspectives Guy Seidman and Aviv Gaon imagine how the socio cultural perception of AVs might develop and how they could fit into the urban landscape Silicon Valley Imperialism Erin McElroy, 2024-02-02 Erin McElroy maps processes of gentrification racial dispossession and economic predation in the San Francisco Bay Area and postsocialist Romania to expose the mechanisms through which global techno capitalism devours space and societies in order to expand its reach

Graphic Narratives about South Asia and South Asian America Kavita Daiya, 2020-06-29 This book explores the field of Comics Studies in South Asia illuminating an art form in which there has been a much documented explosion of recent interest A diverse group of scholars from Asia Europe and North America examine aesthetics politics and ideology in sequential art about South Asia and South Asian America The book features contributions which address gender violence authoritarian politics caste discrimination environmentalism racism and urban street art amongst others The unique interdisciplinary span of the volume considers mass popular comic books as well as the graphic novel This edited volume would be of interest to those studying the influence of graphic novels graphic narratives and comic books in South Asia as well as researchers interested in what these forms might have to say about important issues in society This book was originally published as a special issue of the South Asian Review journal Kingdom Of Ten Thousand Things Gary Geddes,2012-08-14 For thirty years Gary Geddes has lived with his shadow self an obscure 5th century Buddhist monk named Huishen whose legend shanghaied his vivid imagination Huishen originally from Kabul Afghanistan reportedly sailed from China to Vancouver Island continuing southward to Mexico In a journey to recreate the travels of Huishen Geddes finds himself not only struggling to cross the ancient barriers of the Himalayas the Taklamakan Desert the Pacific Ocean and the jungles of Central America but also gingerly picking his way through Taliban landmines and Chinese and Zapatista politics From Afghan refugees to Tibetan monks and the ghost of Quetzalcoatl in Mexico Geddes encounters a host of quirky characters and fast friends none so compelling and insistent as the voice of Huishen who speaks to him mysteriously across the centuries But not even Huishen could imagine the events of 9 11 which transform Geddes journey beyond a quest for an elusive monk into an exploration of the ways in which we learn to interpret history Sacred profane and richly comic Kingdom of Ten Thousand Things a Chinese term for life itself is a remarkable personal odyssey a cornucopia of adventure philosophy and hearsay a book that will disarm and delight while provoking debate just who got here first anyway CQ ,1993
