American Indian Literature Kimberly Wieser-Weryackwe, 2025-07-10

Discover the essential people works movements and themes in American Indian literature American Indian literature is a varied and vibrant collection of Indigenous artistic expression American Indian novelists poets essayists and critics have over the last four centuries asserted powerful forms of intellectual and artistic sovereignty writing in English while building on discrete tribal oral traditions and forms of storytelling This encyclopedia introduces readers to the key historical and contemporary figures in American Indian literature and their defining works From the fiery sermons of Methodist minister William Apress to the Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn by N Scott Momaday to the critically acclaimed and commercially successful novels of Louise Erdrich this book illustrates the indelible and influential imprint American Indians have on the landscape of American letters Readers are also introduced to the key themes and context of American Indian literature exploring how it is inextricable from American literary history the American literary canon and the narrative of American history not on the fringes of the American experience but central to it

Wait Five Minutes Shelley Ingram, Willow G. Mullins, 2023-05-18 Contributions by Emma Frances Bloomfield Sheila Bock Kristen Bradley Hannah Chapple James Deutsch Mirt Hanley Christine Hoffmann Kate Parker Horigan Shelley Ingram John Laudun Jordan Lovejoy Lena Marander Eklund Jennifer Morrison Willow G Mullins Anne Pryor Todd Richardson and Claire Schmidt The weather governs our lives It fills gaps in conversations determines our dress and influences our architecture No matter how much our lives may have moved indoors no matter how much we may rely on technology we still monitor the weather Wait Five Minutes Weatherlore in the Twenty First Century draws from folkloric literary and scientific theory to offer up new ways of thinking about this most ancient of phenomena Weatherlore is a concept that describes the folk beliefs and traditions about the weather that are passed down casually among groups of people Weatherlore can be predictive such as the belief that more black than brown fuzz on a woolly bear caterpillar signals a harsh winter It can be the familiar commentary that eases daily social interactions such as asking Is it hot or cold enough for you Other times it is simply ubiquitous If you don't like the weather wait five minutes and it will change From detailing personal experiences at picnics and suburban lawns to critically analyzing storm stories novels and flood legends contributors offer engaging multidisciplinary perspectives on weatherlore As we move further into the twenty first century an increasing awareness of climate change and its impacts on daily life calls for a folkloristic reckoning with the weather and a rising need to examine vernacular understandings of weather and climate Weatherlore helps us understand and shape global political conversations about climate change and biopolitics at the same time that it influences individual group and regional lives and identities We use weather and thus its folklore to make meaning of ourselves our groups and quite literally our world

Muslim Identities in Contemporary Televangelists' Online Discourse Shaimaa El Naggar, 2024-10-29 This book examines the discourse of Muslim televangelism in the West particularly looking at the emergence of home grown televangelists who grew up in the West and deliver their sermons in English addressing audiences in contexts such as the UK and the USA In their sermons televangelists address topics that are relevant
