Communal Families in the Balkans Philip Edward Mosely, Leonard Schapiro, 1976 Communal Families in the Balkans Robert Francis Byrnes, 1976 Communal Families in the Balkans: the Zadruga Philip Edward Mosely, 1976 Household and Family in the Balkans Karl Kaser, 2012 On the occasion of the 20th anniversary of the foundation of the Balkan Family History Project at the University of Graz in 1993 this volume unites the most outstanding essays by the project members that have appeared over the course of the previous two decades scattered in various journals and books These essays cover the interval from the 19th to the 21st century and reflect the current status of Balkan family research in historical anthropological and demographical perspectives Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 13 Communal Families in the Balkans: The Zadruga. Essays by Ph. E. Mosely and Essays in His Honor. Ed. by R.F. Byrnes. Introd. by M. Mead. Contribs: L.B. Schapiro, S. Skendi A.o Philip Edward Mosely, R. F. Byrnes, M. Mead, L. B. Schapiro, S. Skendi, 1976 Modernity and the Unmaking of Men Violeta Schubert, 2020-08-01 Responding to the renewed emphasis on the significance of village studies this book focuses on aging bachelorhood as a site of intolerable angst when faced with rural depopulation and social precarity Based on ongoing ethnographic fieldwork in contemporary Macedonian society the book explores the intersections between modernity kinship and gender It argues that as a critical consequence of demographic rupture changing values and societal shifts aging bachelorhood illuminates and challenges conceptualizations of performativity and social presence

The Routledge History Handbook of Central and Eastern Europe in the Twentieth Century Włodzimierz Borodziej, Stanislav Holubec, Joachim von Puttkamer, 2020-04-21 Challenges of Modernity offers a broad account of the social and economic history of Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century and asks critical questions about the structure and experience of modernity in different contexts and periods This volume focuses on central questions such as How did the various aspects of modernity manifest themselves in the region and what were their limits How was the multifaceted transition from a mainly agrarian to an industrial and post industrial society experienced and perceived by historical subjects Did Central and Eastern Europe in fact approximate its dream of modernity in the twentieth century despite all the reversals detours and third way visions Structured chronologically and taking a comparative approach a range of international contributors combine a focus on the overarching problems of the region with a discussion of individual countries and societies offering the reader a comprehensive nuanced survey of the social and economic history of this complex region in the recent past The first in a four volume set on Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century it is the go to resource for those interested in the challenges of modernity faced by this dynamic region Scaling the Balkans Maria N. Todorova, 2018-09-11 Scaling the Balkans puts in conversation several fields that have been traditionally treated as discrete Balkan studies Ottoman studies East European studies and Habsburg and Russian studies By looking at the complex interrelationship between countries and regions demonstrating how different perspectives and different methodological approaches inflect interpretations and conclusions it insists on the heuristic value of scales The volume is a collection of published and unpublished essays dealing with issues of modernism backwardness historical legacy balkanism post colonialism and orientalism nationalism identity and alterity society and nation building historical demography and social structure socialism and communism in memory and historiography

Balkan Family Structure and the European Pattern Maria N. Todorova, 2006-05-10 This study which is an updated extended and revised version of the out of print 1993 edition reassesses the traditional stereotype of the place of the Balkans in the model of the European family in the nineteenth century on the basis of new source material and by synthesizing existing research The work first analyzes family structure and demographic variables as they appear in population registers and other sources and the impact of these findings on theoretical syntheses of the European family pattern On most features such as population structure marriage and nuptiality birth and fertility death and mortality rates family and household size and structure as well as inheritance patterns the Balkans show an enormous deal of internal variety This variability is put in a comparative European context by matching the quantifiable results with comparable figures and patterns in other parts of Europe The second section of the book is a contribution to the long standing debate over the zadruga the complex collective joint or extended family in the Balkans Finally the book considers ideology and mythology and the ways it has adversely affected scholarship on the family and broadly on population history

Sex and Society in the World of the Orthodox Slavs, 900-1700 Eve Levin, 1989 In this pioneering book Eve Levin explores sexual behavior among the peoples of Serbia Bulgaria and Russia from their conversion to Christianity in the ninth and tenth centuries until the end of the seventeenth century By ranging across all these societies Levin is able to fulfill three basic aims to delineate the general character of sexuality among the Orthodox Slavs to enrich that account by drawing our attention to regional variations in the sexual mores of these peoples and to draw suggestive comparisons between the world of the medieval Orthodox Slavs and their contemporaries in the Latin West Levin begins with a study of the ecclesiastical image of sexuality as expressed in didactic and literary texts showing that the Orthodox Church was deeply suspicious of sexuality Her second chapter on canon law and marriage examines the conditions for marriage divorce and remarriage the obligation of the conjugal relationship and the impact of these rules on social order Levin looks at church regulations concerning sexual relations among relatives by blood marriage spiritual kinship and adoption in Chapter Three and she devotes Chapter Four to prohibited sexual practices both inside and outside of marriage In the fifth chapter she studies Russian and South Slavic responses to rape and demonstrates that these societies simultaneously censured violence against women and sanctioned the attitudes and social structures that justified it Chapter Six deals with the rules on sexual conduct for the clergy whose job it was to enforce sexual precepts Throughout her work Levin argues that despite its conviction that sexual expression was diabolical the medieval Orthodox Church approached sexual matters in a surprisingly practical way its official sexual ethic corresponded to a great degree with popular views Historians of the Slavic world both medieval and modern will welcome this accessible study It should also attract comparativists who work in such fields as church history the history of women and the family and the history of sexuality Microstudies in Yugoslav (Serbian) Social Structure and Demography Joel Martin Halpern,1982 Journal of Mediterranean Studies ,2005 Balkan Studies ,1984 Nationalism and Statecraft in Southeastern Europe, 1750-1923 Victor Roudometof,1996 Women Who Become Men Antonia Young,2000 Based on extensive interviews this text tells the frank and engrossing stories of these women setting their lives within the wider context of a country undergoing radical upheaval and social transformation A Serbian Village in Historical Perspective Joel Martin Halpern,Barbara Halpern,1986 Women of the Mediterranean Monique Gadant,1986 Muslim Peoples: Acehnese Richard V. Weekes,1984 Serpent In The Bosom Lenard J Cohen,2001-01-04 What emerges is a clear understanding of Serbia s enigmatic leader and his influence on the Balkans
