Communicating Gender in Context Helga Kotthoff, Ruth Wodak, 1997-01-01 The contributions to the book Communicating Gender in Context deal not only with grammatical gender but also with discursive procedures for constructing gender as a relevant social category in text and context Attention is directed to European cultures which till now have come up short in linguistic and discourse analytic gender studies e.g. Austria Spain Turkey Germany Poland and Sweden But also English speech communities and questions of English grammatical gender are dealt with In accordance with recent sociolinguistic research the contributors refrain from generalizing theses about how men and women normally speak no conversational style feature adheres so firmly to one sex as was thought in early feminism The studies however show that even today the feminine gender is often staged in a way that leads to situative asymmetry to the advantage of men The broader societal context of patriarchy does not determine all communicative encounters but demands particular efforts from women and men to be subverted

Living with Patriarchy Danijela Majstorovi?, Inger Lassen, 2011-10-26 This innovative book critically examines patriarchal hegemonies from a variety of theoretical and methodological perspectives It challenges the Anglo American bias of much gender and language research to date by including rich new data and insights from scholars working in countries such as Colombia Liberia Kenya Vietnam Japan Greece Bosnia Herzegovina Sweden Denmark and Poland Within these different geographical contexts a broadly defined notion of culture incorporates organizational cultures subcultures of society cultures of clans or tribes as well as national cultures depending on the meanings ascribed to the notion by people in public and private spaces The central question of the volume which is addressed through a variety of data different discourse analytical approaches and research methodologies is How is gender constructed in social life and in patriarchal systems through discourse in different parts of the world

Digital Media, Political Polarization and Challenges to Democracy Maren Beaufort, 2020-06-29 This book assesses the interplay between social media political polarization and civic engagement focusing on countries with differing media environments cultural specifics and degrees of democratization Taken from a variety of disciplinary perspectives and based on innovative theoretical interventions and empirically grounded research the contributions to this volume share a common aspiration to understand the democratic character of the new and thus far largely unknown media regime Such a regime has the potential to both enhance and undermine democracy in a time where the vulnerability of democracy is more obvious than ever before Featuring research from the USA Western Europe the Middle East and East Asia this book will be of interest to those studying recent political events in these regions as well as to those scholars of media studies whose research focuses on the inter relation of politics communication and the media This book was originally published as a special issue of Information Communication Society FoL, 1998 Feminism and Territoriality Susanne Hagemann, 2005 Studies in Language, 1999 Women's Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy
