Communication Skills for the Processing of Words Rosanne Reiff, South-western Publishing Company, 1997

Communication Skills for the Processing of Words Reiff, 1996 Communication Skills for the Processing of Words is designed to teach and reinforce the communication skills necessary for entry into the business environment. In addition to providing students with a firm base in the language arts, the text workbook helps develop the decision making skills necessary for success in today's offices. This text workbook focuses on specific grammar and punctuation rules. The realistic application materials address such business related topics as stress, business ethics, listening skills, office technology, management skills, quality circles, and computer information.

Communication Skills for the Processing of Words

Rosanne Reiff, 2004-07-23 This text is designed to help students become more effective communicators. Students will master using correct grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and proofreading skills as they format business documents. These basic communication skills are necessary in order to qualify for entry level jobs and assist students in their continuing journey up the career ladder. The text workbook may be used in any type of classroom environment in which words are processed. For the post secondary markets, the text is packaged with a student CD. This student CD provides files for On the Alert Document, 2 Proof of Mastery Documents 3 and 4, and the Achievement Reviews.

Processing, Lessons 61-120 Susie Van Huss, Connie Forde, Donna Woo, 2001-12-13 Advance students to the expert level of word processing. Focusing on document mastery and advanced word processing functions with Word 2002, students will apply functions to business correspondence, tables, reports, and administrative and employment documents. Graphics and design enhancement functions are also included, giving students the skills that they need to produce professional and appealing documents and business communications.

Advanced Applications with Microsoft Word

Susie H. VanHuss, Connie M. Forde, Donna L. Woo, Linda Hefferin, Susie VanHuss, 2005-08-03 This text takes document processing out of the classroom and into the workplace. A simulated company, UBI, serves as the overall structure for this one-of-a-kind text. Realistic workplace challenges integrate business vocabulary, critical thinking strategies, and Web research skills into the instruction of document processing, making it an ideal resource for a third semester document processing course. Related learning and success tips for working effectively are included to improve workplace efficiency and professional development. The project-based applications provide comprehensive coverage of Microsoft Word competencies but assume the user already knows the basic functions of the Office Suite. Microsoft Word skills are heightened by integrating the full range of word processing features into key workplace skills.
