Societies in Transition Martin Leiner, Maria Palme, Peggy Stoeckner, Benoît Bourguine, Francois Dermange, Dennis Doyle, Matthias Gockel, Makoto Mizutani, Arie Nadler, David Tombs, 2014-07-16 The second volume of the trans disciplinary series Research in Peace and Reconciliation looks at ways of dealing with the past in Sub Saharan Africa in recent decades and highlights the variety of peaceful strategies and processes It asks to what extent this variety fosters the development of alternative methods for the transformation of violent conflict The contributions focus on different African countries and regions as Chad Nigeria Rwanda Uganda Namibia Zimbabwe and South Africa They take into account the influence of particular cultural contexts on processes of reconciliation In doing so they emphasize the importance of religions rites and tribal customs as well as the complex legacy of colonialism They also look at the presentation of the topic in Western media Many thanks go to the Ernst Abbe Foundation Jena for its generous support of the publication Global Perspectives on Reforming the Criminal Justice System Pittaro, Michael, 2021-06-25 The often tenuous relationship between law enforcement and communities of color namely African Americans has grown increasingly strained and the call for justice has once again ignited the demand for criminal justice reform Rebuilding the trust between the police and the citizens that they have sworn to protect and serve requires that criminal justice practitioners and educators collaborate with elected officials and commit to an open ongoing dialogue on the most challenging issues that remain unresolved but demand collective attention and support Reform measures are not limited to policing policies and practices but rather extend throughout the criminal justice system There is no denying that the criminal justice system as we know it is flawed but not beyond repair Global Perspectives on Reforming the Criminal Justice System provides in depth and current research about the criminal justice system around the world its many inadequacies and why it urgently needs reformation Offering a fully fleshed outline of the current system this book details the newest research and is incredibly important to fully understand the flaws of the criminal justice system across the globe The goals of this book are to improve and advance the criminal justice system by addressing the glaring weaknesses within the system and discuss potential reforms including decreasing the prison population decarceration and improving police community relations Highlighting topics that include accountability community oriented policing ethics and mass incarceration this book is ideal for law enforcement officers trainers educators government officials policymakers
