Political Cultures in Asia and Europe Jean Blondel, Takashi Inoguchi, 2006-09-27 This book is a study of the attitudes to political and social life among the citizens of eighteen countries in Western Europe East and Southeast Asia Drawing on data from the largest cross national survey on political culture for the last half a century this book assesses how political culture differs across the two regions and whether this can be drawn back to a profound difference in basic societal values or Asian values Examining geographical religious and socio economic factors the authors discuss whether there genuinely is a common political value in the two regions or a profound difference as these countries move towards modernity This original and comprehensive study of the values norms and beliefs held by citizens of the East and West will appeal to students and scholars of political culture and comparative politics as well as Asian and European politics No Economy, No Singapore Youyenn Teo, 2005 The Politics of Human Rights In East Asia Kenneth Christie, Denny Roy, 2001-02-20 Includes statistics State of Democracy in South Asia, 2008 This report seeks to shift the locus of discourse on democracy away from the global North to most of the world It does so by examining democratic experience in South Asia a region marked by poverty illiteracy complex diversities and multiple and overlapping structures of social hierarchy and by daring to ask not just what democracy has done to South Asia but also what South Asia has done to democracy Based on the first ever social scientific survey of political opinions and attitudes across the five countries in the region Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka the report offers a fresh analysis of the promise of democracy for the ordinary people its institutional slippages obstacles in its functioning and its mixed outcomes The report combines public opinion data with expert assessment case studies and dialogue with democracy activists BOOK JACKET Ethnic Minorities and Politics in Southeast Asia Thomas Engelbert, 2004 Southeast Asia is a region of eleven different states each having many different peoples languages cultures and religions However general ideas principles or rules which can encompass any one particular example or one country are nevertheless possible This constant interplay and interaction between the specific and the general between the local and the regional between region and nation between history and current times is one of the characteristics of Southeast Asia In taking this background into consideration it is important to distinguish between rule and exception to trace down recurrent themes in history according to changing circumstances and to seek possible ways of smoothing tensions or of solving conflicts This book includes contributions covering about seven Southeast Asian countries Myanmar Thailand Laos Cambodia and Vietnam on the mainland as well as Singapore and Indonesia on the islands The contributions deal with all three of the important categories of ethnic minorities the tribal or indigenous populations the nationalities who live as majority population in neighbouring states and the so called Foreign Asians Furthermore general questions such as Nationalit tenpolitik and language politics Sprachenpolitik are also addressed Encyclopedia of Politics Rodney P. Carlisle, 2005-03-17 Although the distinction between the politics of the left and the right is commonly assumed in the media and in treatments of political science and history the terms are used so loosely that the student and the general reader are often confused What exactly are the terms left and right supposed to imply This two volume Encyclopedia of Politics The Left and the Right contains over 450 articles on individuals movements political parties and ideological principles with those usually thought of as left in the left hand volume Volume 1 and those considered on the right in the right hand volume Volume 2 Inventing Malayanness: Race, Education and Englishness in Colonial Malaya Adeline M. Koh, 2008 Politics and Cultures of Islamization in Southeast Asia Georg Stauth, 2002 This book is about cultural and political figures institutions and ideas in a period of transition in two Muslim countries in Southeast Asia Malaysia and Indonesia It also addresses some of the permutations of civilizing processes in Singapore and the city state s image moving across its borders into the region and representing a miracle of modernity beyond ideas The central theme is the way in which Islam was re constructed as an intellectual and socio political tradition in Southeast Asia in the nineteen nineties Scholars who approach Islam both as a textual and local tradition students who take the heartlands of Islam as imaginative landscapes for cultural transformation and politicians and institutions which have been concerned with transmitting the idea of Islamization are the subjects of this inquiry into different patterns of modernity in a tropical region still bearing the signature of a colonial past Gender, Sexuality, and Body Politics in Modern Asia Michael G. Peletz, 2007 Muslims as Minorities Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir, Syed Muhd.
