Communities Across Borders Paul T. Kennedy, Victor Roudometof, 2003 Communities Across Borders Under Globalising Conditions Paul T. Kennedy, Victor Roudometof, 2001 Communities, Identities and Crime Basia Spalek, 2008 This book provides a critical exploration of the importance of social identities when considering crime victimisation and criminal justice and offers a refreshing perspective on the most significant developments in relation to equality and diversity issues that feature in policies and practices of criminal justice agencies

Critical Globalization Studies Richard P. Appelbaum, William I. Robinson, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Migration and Transnationalism Helen Lee, Steve Tupai Francis, 2009-08-01 Pacific Islanders have engaged in transnational practices since their first settlement of the many islands in the region As they moved beyond the Pacific and settled in nations such as New Zealand the U S and Australia these practices intensified and over time have profoundly shaped both home and diasporic communities This edited volume begins with a detailed account of this history and the key issues in Pacific migration and transnationalism today The papers that follow present a range of case studies that maintain this focus on both historical and contemporary perspectives Each of the contributors goes beyond a narrowly economic focus to present the human face of migration and transnationalism exploring questions of cultural values and identity transformations in kinship intergenerational change and the impact on home communities Pacific migration and transnationalism are addressed in this volume in the context of increasing globalisation and growing concerns about the future social political and economic security of the Pacific region As the case studies presented here show the future of the Pacific depends in many ways on the ties diasporic Islanders maintain with their homelands

Global Ethics and Civil Society Darren O'Byrne, 2017-03-02 This detailed and timely volume examines the impact of global transformations on concepts of civil society Divided into two sections it evaluates changing notions of ethics and how these transformations are operationalized The first part deals with the theoretical aspects while the second examines the practical impact of the evolution of global ethics and norms on society Providing solid case studies this accessible volume contributes to the theoretical literature in the field and will prove a useful library reference work or graduate reader in the areas of globalization civil society ethics human rights citizenship and cosmopolitanism

Local Lives and Global Transformations Paul Kennedy, 2017-09-16 Globalization is widely accepted as being a defining process of our modern society But to what extent do individuals think feel or act in a way that takes account of the whole world Do globalization processes really affect us in our everyday lives And if so where are the boundaries between local and global society This book investigates how local and global studies overlap and interact by examining how real local lives function under global conditions It begins by unravelling the most important concepts and debates in the field opening them up to scrutiny and testing their assumptions through recent case studies and empirical material The book goes on to examine the power of local forces in forming global processes and explores our attachment to local vs global identities whilst asking if we can build on our local attachments to move towards a world society From concerns about the international economy and growing global inequalities to worldwide fears of organized crime and terrorism this insightful book suggests a new way of looking at the interaction of local and global transformations Local Lives and Global Transformations gives student readers the knowledge and the encouragement to push the boundaries of their understanding of globalization It is inspiring reading for all those studying and interested in globalization throughout the social sciences

Diaspora, Politics, and Globalization M.

Laguerre,2006-08-01 Laguerre proposes a relationship among migrants and their home society that transcends current views in migration studies The relationship among Haitians who live outside Haiti reflects a web rather than a radial relationship with the home country Haitian migrants communicate among themselves and the home country simultaneously In viewing the Haitian diaspora from a global perspective the author reveals a new theory of interconnectedness in migration which marks a significant move away from transnationalism

Ties to the Homeland Helen Morton Lee,2008 Ties to the Homeland examines the connections maintained across national borders by the children of migrants the oesecond generation In the context of globalisation and increasing population mobility migrants TM transnational ties have become an important topic of research yet until recently we have heard little about the reproduction of such ties in the second generation The transnational engagements of migrants TM children are crucial for understanding future trends in the global movement of people money goods and ideas and they also can have a significant impact on issues of cultural identity and oebelonging for these children who grow up outside their parents TM homelands but may have dual or even multiple notions of oehome The detailed case studies in Tie to the Homeland explore the diverse transnational practices and attitudes of members of the second generation and reveal significant intergenerational differences that bring into question some of the key assumptions underlying existing work on transnationalism The case studies focus on the children of migrants originating in regions such as Europe the Middle East and the South Pacific and they bring an Australian perspective to a field that has been dominated by a European and North American focus

Collective Memory, National Identity, and Ethnic Conflict Victor Roudometof,2002-12-30 This is an analysis of inter ethnic relations in the Southern Balkans It examines the evolution of the Macedonian question and the production of rival national narratives by Greeks Bulgarians and Macedonians It deconstructs the national narratives to show their limitations and biases

Diaspora ,2007

"We are the Explorers" Anne Whiteside,2006

The Bangladeshi Diaspora in the United States After 9/11 Shafiqur Rahman,2011 After 9 11 Bangladeshi Americans felt pressured to see their identities in binary Muslim vs American terms They refused to accept this identity not only because it does not fit but also because it curtails their ability to engage society in multiple terms and to exercise their rights as citizens Bangladeshis experiences were colored by gender generation and social class While the first generation Bangladeshis maintain strong connections with Bangladesh and prefer to be identified as Bangladeshi Americas the second generation identifies as desi a generic South Asian identity which helps them reconcile their parents expectations and the demands of their lives in the United States Bangladeshi diasporic media are not maintain connections with their old home but also are an integral part of their lives in the diaspora Provided by publisher

Gender and International Migration ,2003

Immigration and Integration in Canada in the Twenty-first Century James S. Frideres,Meyer Burstein,John Biles,2008 The two way street of integration requires commitment from both government institutions and individuals This book looks at the social cultural economic and political integration of new comers and minorities and establishes measures for assessing the success of integration practices It presents overviews of issues related to integration
