WE ARE ON

Community Organizing:

Community Organizing and Development Herbert J. Rubin, Irene Rubin, 2008 This revised edition of a well known and widely used text in community organizing and development fully examines the broad and changing political and social settings that influence actions while portraying the infra structure of social change the knowledge personnel and organizations that enable such work to be successfully accomplished The text brings together the practicalities of organizing and development fund raising working out news releases running an organization orchestrating political actions academic knowledge and explains why various approaches work as well as the values and ideologies that guide what is to be done It provides the foundations of organizing and development work and then describes how activists through following either a social confrontation model or an economic and social production approach can respond to economic and social problems

Community Organizing Ross J. Gittell, Avis Vidal, 1998-06-10 Community Organizing provides new insight into an important national challenge how to stimulate the formation of genuinely community based organizations and effective citizen action in neighborhoods that have not spawned these efforts spontaneously Since Robert Putnam s identification of the role of social capital in regional governance and economic development there has been a virtual industry of interest and action created around the implications of his findings for the development of low income communities Yet there remains a paucity of detailed empirical effort testing and refining his ideas This book attempts to fill this gap Community Organizing distills lessons from a national demonstration program that employed a novel approach to community organizing consensus organizing Consensus organizing enhances social capital building both stronger internal ties and capacity in low income communities and fostering new relations bridges between residents of low income communities and larger metropolitan area support communities Using evaluation research and detailed comparative study of community development activity in three diverse demonstration sites Ross Gittell and Avis Vidal identify key elements of building social capital which strongly affect community development comprehension of community development credibility of effort and participants confidence competence and constructive critiques of efforts Other elements are more relevant to program management and implementation and include communication among participants congruence of program effort management of inherent contradiction and adjusting implementation to reflect local context This book describes the limits and promise of building social capital and will be of interest to community development students and professionals Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Social Equity, 4th Edition Meredith Minkler, Patricia Wakimoto, 2021-12-10 The fourth edition of Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Social Equity provides both classic and recent contributions to the field with a special accent on how these approaches can contribute to health and social equity The 23 chapters offer conceptual frameworks skill building and case studies in areas like coalition building organizing by and with women of color community assessment and the power of the arts the Internet social media and policy and media advocacy in such work The use of participatory evaluation and strategies and tips on fundraising for community organizing also are presented as are the ethical challenges that can arise in this work and helpful tools for anticipating and addressing them Also included are study questions for use in the classroom Many of the book's contributors are leaders in their academic fields from public health and social work to community psychology and urban and regional planning and to social and political science One author was the 44th president of the United States himself a former community organizer in Chicago who reflects on his earlier vocation and its importance Other contributors are inspiring community leaders whose work on the ground and in partnership with us outsiders highlights both the power of collaboration and the cultural humility and other skills required to do it well Throughout this book and particularly in the case studies and examples shared the role of context is critical and never far from view Included here most recently are the horrific and continuing toll of the COVID 19 pandemic and a long overdue yet still greatly circumscribed national reckoning with systemic racism in the aftermath of the brutal police killing of yet another unarmed Black person and then another and another seemingly without end In many chapters the authors highlight different facets of the Black Lives Matter movement that took on new life across the country and the world in response to these atrocities In other chapters the existential threat of climate change and grave threats to democracy also are underscored View the Table of Contents and introductory text for the supplementary instructor resources https://d3tto5i5w9ogdd.cloudfront.net/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/04143046_9781978832176_optimized_sampler.pdf Supplementary instructor resources are available on request <https://www.rutgersuniversitypress.org/communityorganizing>

Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Welfare Meredith Minkler, 2012-07-16 The third edition of Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Welfare provides new and more established ways to approach community building and organizing from collaborating with communities on assessment and issue selection to using the power of coalition building media advocacy and social media to enhance the effectiveness of such work With a strong emphasis on cultural relevance and humility this collection offers a wealth of case studies in areas ranging from childhood obesity to immigrant worker rights to health care reform A tool kit of appendixes includes guidelines for assessing coalition effectiveness exercises for critical reflection on our own power and privilege and training tools such as policy bingo From former organizer and now President Barack Obama to academics and professionals in the fields of public health social work urban planning and community psychology the book offers a comprehensive vision and on the ground examples of the many ways community building and organizing can help us address some of the most intractable health and social problems of our times Dr Minkler's course syllabus Although Dr Minkler has changed the order of some chapters in the syllabus to accommodate guest speakers and help students prep for the midterm assignment she uses she arranged the actual book layout in a way that should flow quite naturally if instructors wish to use it in the order in which chapters appear

Community Organizing Joan Kuyek, 2014-09-01T00:00:00Z History is full of stories of the oppressed rebelling against the oppressor only to reinstate an equally oppressive system What we learn from oppression is how to oppress If we want a truly transformative politics then we must take up methods that embody the kind of world we want to create we have to change deeply embedded beliefs and behaviours In this engaging and passionate book long time community organizer Joan Kuyek offers important insights and concrete tools to encourage people to get involved in social justice action at the community level In Canada activists are frustrated with their inability to effect change in the global economic system overwhelmed by the number and complexity of issues and too often unaware or dismissive of the efforts of other activists As a result social forces for justice and the environment are fragmented and ineffective and the economic elite grows more powerful Community Organizing argues that it does not have to be this way Suggesting that most of our attempts at change and community building fail because we cannot get along with each other Community Organizing starts at the community level to describe how we can work together and create organizations based on dignity and respect It provides strategies to build movements from the community to assert democratic political power and tools to create a culture of hope in this time of despair This book offers the means to reclaim political power in Canada

Transforming the City Marion Orr, 2007 A path breaking book the first to examine the evolution of community organizing in U S cities While embracing mobilization the contributors acknowledge the challenges inherent in globalization and the norms and values that shape contemporary American culture Still they reaffirm that community organizing has an important role to play as part of a broader progressive movement

Community Organizing Mike Miller, 2012-04-01 This book provides a brief introduction to what is variously called faith based congregation based and institution based community organizing Grounded in a composite case study of an actual organizing effort it shows how local communities can be organized for power Key organizing concepts and strategies are illustrated with stories of real encounters with leaders communities and powerful opposition figures In the approach described here civic and religious institutions come together to give the community a collective voice Organizers help a community build a powerful organization rooted in core values of democracy and the social justice teachings of the world's great religious traditions Saul Alinsky developed the foundations of the tradition of organizing described here an approach that remains dominant in the U S today Alinsky rooted power deeply in the lives relationships and institutions of marginalized and oppressed people In his early organizing days his organizations brought together a wide range of institutions religious congregations and labor unions as well as mutual aid self help athletic sororal and fraternal neighborhood and other voluntary associations By the late 1970s as non congregational neighborhood associations fell into decline organizers in the Alinsky tradition started looking more carefully at how to sustain the vibrancy of the religious institutions that remained Organizers sought to help congregation members become co creators rather than consumers of the life of their churches and worked to help members connect their faith more directly to action in the world In this way they helped make both faith and the action more meaningful This little book tells the story of one congregation that was a member of a broadly based community organization and how a community organizer assisted its development as a true community
