The Parent-School Board Feuds Gerard Giordano, 2024-10-02 During the COVID-19 pandemic, parents were able to observe their children in online classes. They were surprised by classroom discussions and assignments related to gender, race, ethnicity and religion along with the policies that were guiding curricula, tests, technology, athletics, discipline, safety, transportation, funding and numerous other aspects of schools. Parents began giving their advice to their school boards but when they were ignored, they disrupted meetings, wrote editorials, created blogs, staged rallies and lobbied state officials. They were hoping to attract media attention and acquire political power and were stunned by their success. The Parent School Board Feuds: Essential Steps by Parents to Improve Schools recounts parent school board feuding about controversial classroom topics such as gender and race, their disagreements about school policies including those affecting tests, technology, athletics and discipline and the impact that parents had during the pandemic and continue to have today.

Rural Education Research in the United States Gwen C. Nugent, Gina M. Kunz, Susan M. Sheridan, Todd A. Glover, Lisa L. Knoche, 2016-10-12 This volume represents current and futuristic thinking of seminal rural education researchers with the goal of providing perspectives and directions to inform the work of rural education research practice and policy. With an emphasis on leveraging collaboration among key rural education stakeholders, this title both outlines our current research knowledge base and maps a future research agenda for maximizing the educational experiences and achievement of rural K-12 students and their families and educators in the United States. In examining the interrelated impacts of teacher practices, family engagement, school community environment and contextual factors, the book offers the evidence-based insights of seminal researchers on issues ranging from professional development and family school partnership approaches to methodological considerations It also explores the needs opportunities and realities associated with translating research to the arenas of practice and policy while considering how the latter can inform future scholarship
