Color And Race:

Beyond the Color Line Abigail M. Thernstrom, Stephan Thernstrom, 2002 Race and ethnicity issues facing the citizens of the US are addressed by 25 scholars and writers Among the themes are private lives and public policies economics law education and politics Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Whiteness of a Different Color Matthew Frye Jacobson, 1999-09-01 In this work of historical imagination Jacobson argues that race resides in contingencies of politics and culture Linking whiteness studies to traditional historical inquiry he shows that in a nation of immigrants race has been at the core of civic assimilation ethnic minorities in becoming American were re racialized to become Caucasian

The Color of Race in America, 1900-1940 Matthew Pratt Guterl, 2002-10-30 With the social change brought on by the Great Migration of African Americans into the urban northeast after the Great War came the surge of a biracial sensibility that made America different from other Western nations How white and black people thought about race and how both groups understood and attempted to define and control the demographic transformation are the subjects of this new book by a rising star in American history An elegant account of the roiling environment that witnessed the shift from the multiplicity of white races to the arrival of biracialism this book focuses on four representative spokesmen for the transforming age Daniel Cohalan the Irish American nationalist Tammany Hall man and ruthless politician Madison Grant the patrician eugenicist and noisy white supremacist W E B Du Bois the African American social scientist and advocate of social justice and Jean Toomer the American pluralist and novelist of the interior life Race politics and classification were their intense and troubling preoccupations in a world they did not create would not accept and tried to change

Color Struck Lori Latrice Martin, Hayward Derrick Horton, Cedric Herring, Verna M. Keith, Melvin Thomas, 2017-08-25 Skin color and skin tone has historically played a significant role in determining the life chances of African Americans and other people of color It has also been important to our understanding of race and the processes of racialization But what does the relationship between skin tone and stratification outcomes mean Is skin tone correlated with stratification outcomes because people with darker complexions experience more discrimination than those of the same race with lighter complexions Is skin tone differentiation a process that operates external to communities of color and is then imposed on people of color Or is skin tone discrimination an internally driven process that is actively aided and abetted by members of communities of color themselves Color Struck provides answers to these questions In addition it addresses issues such as the relationship between skin tone and wealth inequality anti black sentiment and whiteness Twitter culture marriage outcomes and attitudes gender racial identity civic engagement and politics at predominately White Institutions Color Struck can be used as required reading for courses on race ethnicity religious studies history political science education mass communications African and African American Studies social work and sociology

Dreaming Equality Robin E. Sheriff, 2001 Robin E Sheriff spent twenty months in a primarily black shantytown in Rio de Janeiro studying the inhabitants's views of race and racism How she asks do poor African Brazilians experience and interpret racism in a country where its very existence tends to be publicly denied How is racism talked about privately in the family and publicly in the community or is it talked about at all U.S. Census of Agriculture, 1959 ,1962 Same Family, Different Colors Lori L. Tharps,2016-10-04 Weaving together personal stories history and analysis Same Family Different Colors explores the myriad ways skin color politics affect family dynamics in the United States Colorism and color bias the preference for or presumed superiority of people based on the color of their skin is a pervasive and damaging but rarely openly discussed phenomenon In this unprecedented book Lori L Tharps explores the issue in African American Latino Asian American and mixed race families and communities by weaving together personal stories history and analysis The result is a compelling portrait of the myriad ways skin color politics affect family dynamics in the United States Tharps the mother of three mixed race children with three distinct skin colors uses her own family as a starting point to investigate how skin color difference is dealt with Her journey takes her across the country and into the lives of dozens of diverse individuals all of whom have grappled with skin color politics and speak candidly about experiences that sometimes scarred them From a Latina woman who was told she couldn't be in her best friend's wedding photos because her dark skin would spoil the pictures to a light skinned African American man who spent his entire childhood trying to be Black Tharps illuminates the complex and multifaceted ways that colorism affects our self esteem and shapes our lives and relationships Along with intimate and revealing stories Tharps adds a historical overview and a contemporary cultural critique to contextualize how various communities and individuals navigate skin color politics Groundbreaking and urgent Same Family Different Colors is a solution seeking journey to the heart of identity politics so that this more subtle cousin to racism in the author's words will be exposed and confronted The American Annual Cyclopedia and Register of Important Events of the Year ... ,1870

United States Census of Agriculture: 1954, Volume 2, General Report, Statistics by Subjects United States. Bureau of the Census,1956 Race in Another America Edward Eric Telles,2004 This is the most comprehensive and up to date book on the increasingly important and controversial subject of race relations in Brazil North American scholars of race relations frequently turn to Brazil for comparisons since its history has many key similarities to that of the United States Brazilians have commonly compared themselves with North Americans and have traditionally argued that race relations in Brazil are far more harmonious because the country encourages race mixture rather than formal or informal segregation More recently however scholars have challenged this national myth seeking to show that race relations are characterized by exclusion not inclusion and that fair skinned Brazilians continue to be privileged and hold a disproportionate share of wealth and power In this sociological and demographic study Edward Telles seeks to understand the reality of race in Brazil and how well it squares with these traditional and revisionist views of race relations He shows that both schools have it partly right that there is far more miscegenation in Brazil than in the United States but that exclusion remains a serious problem He blends his demographic analysis with ethnographic fieldwork history and political theory to try to understand the enigma of Brazilian race relations how inclusiveness can coexist with exclusiveness The book also seeks to understand some of the political pathologies of buying too readily into unexamined ideas about race relations In the end Telles contends the traditional myth that Brazil had harmonious race relations compared with the United States encouraged the government to do almost nothing to address its shortcomings Hearings, Nov. 16, 1944 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Labor,1944 Skin Deep Cedric Herring,2004 Shattering the myth of the colorblind society this collection of essays is a revealing examination of the ways skin tone inequality operates in America The American Annual Cyclopedia and Register of Important Events ,1872 Color, Hair, and Bone Linden Lewis,Glyne A. Griffith,Elizabeth Crespo Kebler,2008 These essays explore various critical dimensions of race from a sociological anthropological and literary perspective They engage with history either textually materially or with respect to identity in an effort to demonstrate that these discourses Eugenical News ,1916 Life and Public Services of Charles Sumner Charles Edwards Lester,1874 Color Conscious Anthony Appiah,Amy Gutmann,1998-04-05 Seeking to clear the ground for a discussion of the place of race in politics and morality this work tackles different aspects of the question of racial justice Among the concepts discussed in the book is that of race as an invented social category Louisiana Reports Louisiana.
