Underserved Women of Color, Voice, and Resistance Sonja M. Brown Givens, Keisha Edwards Tassie, 2014-03-20 Contemporary research on the lives and experiences of women of color tends to neglect the influence of women's perceived access to voice as they manage tensions related to race class and gender Underserved Women of Color Voice and Resistance Claiming a Seat at the Table contributes to current dialogues that construct Black Feminist Theory as active critical engagement within dominant American institutions that oppress women of color in their daily lives Women of color face unique social challenges that exist at the intersections of race gender class and sexual orientation While some challenges are common to women of color others reflect the distinct journey each woman makes as she negotiates her identity within her family professional circle social and romantic relationships and community The editors have constructed a rich collection of voices in this work exploring the politics of women of color across various social contexts Mental Differences in Certain Immigrant Groups Chester Arthur Gregory, Earl Leroy Packard, Edmund S.
