Colour For Adventurous Gardeners:

Color for Adventurous Gardeners Christopher Lloyd, 2001 An illustrated gardening book about using color for its maximum impact and understanding successful color associations with plants      Colour for Adventurous Gardeners Christopher Lloyd, 2004 Here at last is a book on gardening with colour by its most adventurous exponent Christopher Lloyd COLOUR FOR ADVENTUROUS GARDENERS is about using colour for maximum impact No border no garden is ever monochromatic and even an all green garden consists of many shades yet books for gardeners treat each colour as a separate entity and like painting by numbers set out rules to be followed With a chapter on every colour from Challenging Orange to Sophisticated Black Christopher Lloyd explores each colour in relation to others and discusses the rules in order to encourage the gardener to break them The limitations imposed by rules he writes are a safe haven but the adventurous gardener will want to try something different If a colour is polite Lloyd certainly knows how to liven it up without making it vulgar In a fashionable all white border he advocates a touch of clear pink to make you sit up he suggests bright scarlet rose hips in a purple bed to introduce a note of rebellion COLOUR FOR ADVENTUROUS GARDENERS is NOT another book on gardening with colour It s opinionated it s controversial and it s the most colourful book on plant associations you ll ever read

Dear Christo , 2010-01-01 Great Dixter is a place of pilgrimage for gardeners all over the world Its exuberant plantings have drawn legions of green fingered visitors for decades In this book leading gardening writers visitors photographers and friends share using words and images what Dixter means to them      Christopher Lloyd Stephen Anderton, 2010-03-04 Christopher Lloyd Christo was one of the greatest English gardeners of the twentieth century perhaps the finest plantsman of them all His creation is the garden at Great Dixter in East Sussex and it is a tribute to his vision and achievement that after his death in 2006 the Heritage Lottery Fund made a grant of 4 million to help preserve it for the nation This enjoyable and revealing book the first biography of Christo is also the story of Dixter from 1910 to 2006 a unique unbroken history of one English house and one English garden spanning a century It was Christo s father Nathaniel who bought the medieval manor at Dixter and called in the fashionable Edwardian architect Lutyens to rebuild the house and lay out the garden And it was his mother Daisy who made the first wild garden in the meadows there Christo was born at Dixter in 1921 Apart from boarding school war service and a period at horticultural college he spent his whole life there constantly re planting and enriching the garden while turning out landmark books and exhaustive journalism Opinionated argumentative and gloriously eccentric he changed the face of English gardening through his passions for meadow gardening dazzling colours and thorough husbandry As the baby of a family of six five boys and a girl Christo was stifled by his adoring mother Music loving and sports hating he knew the Latin names of plants before he was eight This fascinating book reveals what made Christo tick by examining his relationships with his generous but scheming mother his like minded friends such as gardeners Anna Pavord and Beth Chatto and his colleagues including his head gardener Fergus Garrett a plantsman in Christo s own mould
