needed conversation about how to move childhood studies forward as a grounded field of research The volume is subdivided into three sections subjectivities relationalities and structures each of which addresses different but interrelated approaches to childhood studies theorization This handbook will be an essential text not just for childhood studies researchers but for all those interested in theorizing what childhood is what work it does and who children are International Books in Print ,1997 America, History and Life ,1994 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Chelsea ,2002 Landscapes of the New West Krista Comer,1999 In the early 1970s empowered by the civil rights and women s movements a new group of women writers began speaking to the American public Their topic broadly defined was the postmodern American West By the mid 1980s their combined works made for a bona fide literary groundswell in both critical and commercial terms However as Krista Comer notes despite the attentions of publishers the media and millions of readers literary scholars have rarely addressed this movement or its writers Too many critics Comer argues still enamored of western images that are both masculine and antimodern have been slow to reckon with the emergence of a new far more feminine postmodern multiracial and urban west Here she calls for a redesign of the field of western cultural studies one that engages issues of gender and race and is more self conscious about space itself _especially that cherished symbol of western authenticity open landscape Surveying works by Joan Didion Wanda Coleman Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Barbara Kingsolver Pam Houston Louise Erdrich Sandra Cisneros and Mary Clearman Blew Comer shows how these and other contemporary women writers have mapped new geographical imaginations upon the cultural and social spaces of today s American West Lingua e letteratura ,1991
