Colonialism 1870 1945 An Introduction:

Colonialism, 1870-1945 David Kenneth Fieldhouse,1981      Colonialism, 1870-1945 D.K. Fieldhouse,1988      The Plains Sioux and U.S. Colonialism from Lewis and Clark to Wounded Knee Jeffrey Ostler,2004-07-05 This volume first published in 2004 presents an overview of the history of the Plains Sioux as they became increasingly subject to the power of the United States in the 1800s Many aspects of this story the Oregon Trail military clashes the deaths of Crazy Horse and Sitting Bull and the Ghost Dance are well known Besides providing fresh insights into familiar events the book offers an in depth look at many lesser known facets of Sioux history and culture Drawing on theories of colonialism the book shows how the Sioux creatively responded to the challenges of US expansion and domination while at the same time revealing how US power increasingly limited the autonomy of Sioux communities as the century came to a close The concluding chapters of the book offer a compelling reinterpretation of the events that led to the Wounded Knee massacre of December 29 1890

Critical Readings of the Works of Ngugi wa Thiong'o Gambo Sani,2024-04-18 In this collection of scholarly essays on the works of Ngugi wa Thiong'o one of the most important postcolonial writers alive the contributors adopt a range of reading approaches and analytical models like feminism postcolonialism historicism formalism and psychoanalysis to excavate new meanings and provide fresh insights into Ngugi's artistic oeuvre Through some robust and engaging scholarly discourses the volume animates the politics poetics and artistic vision of Ngugi wa Thiong'o as well as his commitment to the enterprise of decolonisation The comprehensiveness of this collection is partly illustrated by the fact that it addresses a range of diverse issues in all of Ngugi's novels most of his plays and some of his scholarly works To this end the volume is a valuable addition to the body of literature on Ngugi's works and an important resource material to students teachers and researchers of African literature

Conflicts of Colonialism Richard L. Roberts,2022-02-24 Using the life of an African clerk who became a king under French colonial rule this book illuminates conflicts over colonial policies and the application of competing rules of law

Managing the Business of Empire Peter Burroughs,A. J. Stockwell,1998 This collection of essays honours David Fieldhouse many addressing Fieldhouse's own areas colonialism economics and business strategies of rule and decolonization

Empire, Colony, Genocide A. Dirk Moses,2008-06-01 In 1944 Raphael Lemkin coined the term genocide to describe a foreign occupation that destroyed or permanently crippled a subject population In this tradition Empire Colony Genocide embeds genocide in the epochal geopolitical transformations of the past 500 years the European colonization of the globe the rise and fall of the continental land empires violent decolonization and the formation of nation states It thereby challenges the customary focus on twentieth century mass crimes and shows that genocide and ethnic cleansing have been intrinsic to imperial expansion The complexity of the colonial encounter is reflected in the contrast between the insurgent identities and genocidal strategies that subaltern peoples sometimes developed to expel the occupiers and those local elites and creole groups that the occupiers sought to co-opt Presenting case studies on the Americas Australia Africa Asia the

Ottoman Empire Imperial Russia and the Nazi Third Reich leading authorities examine the colonial dimension of the genocide concept as well as the imperial systems and discourses that enabled conquest Empire Colony Genocide is a world history of genocide that highlights what Lemkin called the role of the human group and its tribulations      Encyclopedia of Case

Study Research Albert J. Mills, Gabrielle Durepos, Elden Wiebe, 2009-10-21 Case study research has a long history within the natural sciences social sciences and humanities dating back to the early 1920 s At first it was a useful way for researchers to make valid inferences from events outside the laboratory in ways consistent with the rigorous practices of investigation inside the lab Over time case study approaches garnered interest in multiple disciplines as scholars studied phenomena in context Despite widespread use case study research has received little attention among the literature on research strategies The Encyclopedia of Case Study Research provides a compendium on the important methodological issues in conducting case study research and explores both the strengths and weaknesses of different paradigmatic approaches These two volumes focus on the distinctive characteristics of case study research and its place within and alongside other research methodologies Key Features Presents a definition of case study research that can be used in different fields of study Describes case study as a research strategy rather than as a single tool for decision making and inquiry Guides rather than dictates readers understanding and applications of case study research Includes a critical summary in each entry which raises additional matters for reflection Makes case study relevant to researchers at various stages of their careers across philosophic divides and throughout diverse disciplines Key Themes Academic Disciplines Case Study Research Design Conceptual Issues Data Analysis Data Collection Methodological Approaches Theoretical Traditions Theory Development and Contributions From Case Study Research Types of Case Study Research      Capitalism Paul Bowles, 2014-06-06 Capitalism stands unrivalled as the most enduring economic system of our times Since the collapse of the Soviet bloc the world has become a new stage for capital and yet despite this dominance capitalism is still not widely understood It remains a subject of enduring interest that is discovered and rediscovered over time by each successive generation of students Exploring the life of this world shaping system and the writings of leading thinkers this study also now takes into account recent developments including the impact of the Global Financial Crisis and the complexities of China s political economy Paul Bowles addresses these key questions what are the central unchanging features of capitalism how does capitalism vary from place to place and over time does capitalism improve our lives is capitalism a system which is natural and free Or is it unjust and unstable what about today s global capitalism will capitalism destroy or liberate us This updated edition of a classic text is now supported by a comprehensive documents section chronology and who s who as well as a new colour plate section It offers a concise lucid and thought provoking introduction for undergraduate students or anyone with an interest in this most pervasive long lasting and adaptable yet crisis ridden of economic systems      Colonialism Jürgen Osterhammel, 2005 Osterhammel s book represents a new approach to the subject The concise but sweeping study encompasses the process of colonization and decolonization from the early modern period to the twentieth century Virtually all other studies to date have looked at strategies of colonial conquest exploitation and rule from the imperial point of view Osterhammel shows that the colonial situation developed in ways that duplicated neither the metropolis nor the pre colonial society but instead blended these and added a new direction characteristic only of colonial realms He emphasizes that the Europeans were normally not considered dangerous invaders by local populations until they threatened the traditional cultures with missionaries European schools and bureaucracy The Ejangham Under Colonial Rule Ojong Echum Tangban, 2008 Enterprise Under Colonialism John P. Dickenson, 1991 A History of the Modern World Robert Roswell Palmer, 1992 Considers the history of the making of the modern world since 1500 This text places Europe and the European civilization in its international setting and considers individual nations from the perspective of their points of contact with a larger civilization Post-colonial Literatures in English Alan Lawson, 1997 An annotated bibliography documenting the appearance and institutionalization of the study of post colonial literatures and literary theory within English speaking academies throughout the world the fundamental complexes of institutions and practices that comprise Anglo European colonialism and the differing responses to this history by the diverse racial ethnic and national groups that were formerly subject to the British Empire Cites over 1 300 books dissertations chapters and essays Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Journal of Pacific Studies, 1990 Africa and Europe Norman Robert Bennett, 1984 Bennett emphasizes political history of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries introducing economic social and other historical themes where appropriate While he necessarily includes an extensive systematic account of the various modes of colonial rule he makes a special effort to explore less well known topics as well such as the role of European educated Africans in the formation of an indigenous elite and the position of African born whites in the early stages of African nationalism What emerges most forcefully from Bennett's lucid account is the diversity and scope that have characterized achievements of both the African and European participants in this continuing history Essays in History, 1990 Post-coloniality C. T. Indra, Meenakshi Shivram, 1999 Contributed articles chiefly on post colonial Indic English literature Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 Yu Ouyang, 2008 The first Chinese in Australia are said to have arrived as early as 1818 and since then many more have made Australia their homeland the current Chinese population is over half a million It is therefore not surprising that the Chinese are featured in many Australian literary works This book examines the representation of the Chinese in Australian fiction from 1888 to 1988 with an Author Commentary at the end that provides a brief update on the subsequent fictional representations of the Chinese It begins with an overview of the Chinese in Australian and Chinese history followed by a theoretical examination of how the Chinese are made the Other by Orientalism racism and ethnocentrism It discusses literary texts written over a period of one hundred years from 1888 to 1988 The study is divided into three major periods of 1888 1901 1902 1949 and 1950 1988 The first period 1888 1901 deals with the initial attempts to represent the Chinese in fiction as the bad Other by the early Bulletin writers the Australian responses to the rise of the fear of the Yellow Peril in invasion literature and the imperialist will to power over the Chinese in writings set in China by Anglo Australian writers Apart from pursuing the issue of the continued fear and stereotyping of the Chinese in popular writing the second period 1902 1949 introduces a new phenomenon of literary Sinophilism that dichotomizes the representation of the Chinese and examines the image of Chinese women The third period 1950 1988 focuses on the problem of politicisation that polarizes literary attitudes towards the Chinese and discusses Australia's Asian writing as an extension of colonial writing that continues to Other the Chinese and explores multicultural writing as an alternative means of representation This is an important book that illustrates how the Other is represented and will be a valuable book for those in Australian studies Asian studies and literary studies
