Colonization Marc Ferro, 1997 The first comprehensive synthesis and analysis of colonialism from its origins to the present Using a non Eurocentric approach Ferro compares all the European colonial powers as well as Arab Turk and Japanese colonialism This is an extremely wide ranging and interdisciplinary survey of colonization from its origins to the post colonial world Original and lively it offers the student a wide focus featuring Africa America Asia Australia Europe Japan and the USSR an interpretation drawn from cultural and social history with sections on myth literature film and philosophy constant reference to implications for the present world situation a comprehensive synthesis of the background context and expansion of colonization a comparative thematic discussion of the impact of imperialism extensive coverage and analysis of decolonization Very simply a key publication for the study of colonization Colonialism, 2022-09 Colonialism A Global History interprets colonialism as an unequal relationship characterised by displacement and domination and reveals the ways in which this relationship has been constitutive of global modernity The volume focuses on colonialism s dynamism adaptability and resilience It appraises a number of successive global colonial waves each constituting a specific form of colonial domination each different from the previous ones each affecting different locales at different times and each characterised by a particular method of exploiting colonised populations and territories Outlining a succession of distinct colonising conjunctures and the ways in which they washed over what is today understood as the global South shaping and reshaping institutions and prompting diverse responses from colonised communities Colonialism A Global History also outlines the contemporary relevance of this unequal relation Overall it provides an original definition of colonialism and tells the global history of this mode of domination s evolution and reach The broad chronological and geographical scope makes this volume the ideal resource for all students and scholars interested in globalisation colonialism and empire Bandung, Global History, and International Law Luis Eslava, Michael Fakhri, Vasuki Nesiah, 2017-11-30 In 1955 a conference was held in Bandung Indonesia that was attended by representatives from twenty nine nations Against the backdrop of crumbling European empires Asian and African leaders forged new alliances and established anti imperial principles for a new world order The conference came to capture popular imaginations across the Global South and as counterpoint to the dominant world order it became both an act of collective imagination and a practical political project for decolonization that inspired a range of social movements diplomatic efforts institutional experiments and heterodox visions of the history and future of the world In this book leading international scholars explore what the spirit of Bandung has meant to people across the world over the past decades and what it means today It analyzes Bandung s complicated and pivotal impact on global history international law and most of all justice struggles after the end of formal colonialism

Colonization in World History ,1961 Practical Necessity, Freedom, and History David James, 2021 By means of careful analysis of relevant writings by Hobbes Rousseau Kant Hegel and Marx David James argues that the concept of practical necessity is key to understanding the nature and extent of human freedom Practical necessity means being or believing oneself to be constrained to perform certain actions in the absence whether real or imagined of other more attractive options or by the high costs involved in pursuing other options Agents become subject to practical necessity as a result of economic social and historical forces over which they have or appear to have no effective control and the extent to which they are subject to it varies according to the amount of economic and social power that one agent possesses relative to other agents The concept of practical necessity is also shown to take into account how the beliefs and attitudes of social agents are in large part determined by social and historical processes in which they are caught up and that the type of motivation that we attribute to agents must recognize this Practical Necessity Freedom and History From Hobbes to Marx shows how Rousseau Kant Hegel and Marx in contrast to Hobbes explain the emergence of the conditions of a free society in terms of a historical process that is initially governed by practical necessity The role that this form of necessity plays in explaining history necessity invites the following question to what extent are historical agents genuinely subject to both practical and historical necessity Global History: The age of discovery and colonial expansion, 1400s to 1900s

David W. Del Testa, Florence Lemoine, John Strickland, 2004 Contains primary source material The World's History Howard Spodek, 2001 A true exploration of world history this text presents world history through an analysis of eight chronological turning points seen through the prisms of eight different themes origins cities empires religion trade migrations revolutions and technology Focusing throughout on three major questions What do we know How do we know it

What difference does it make it helps readers make sense of the immensity of human historical experience the most significant activities accomplishments and failures throughout the world from earliest times to the present Volumes I and II cover the following turning points human origins and human cultures 5 million B C E 10 000 B C E The first cities 10 000 B C E 1000 C E Empire and Imperialism 2300 B C E 1100 C E the rise of world religions 600 B C E 1500 C E world trade 1100 1776 C E migration 1500 1750 social change 1688 1914 and exploding technologies 1914 1900s For individuals interested in a comprehensive yet manageable presentation of world history World History, 1998 Contact, Conquest and Colonization Eleonora Rohland, Angelika Epple, Antje Flüchter, Kirsten Kramer, 2021-06-03 Contact Conquest and Colonization brings together international historians and literary studies scholars in order to explore the force of practices of comparing in shaping empires and colonial relations at different points in time and around the globe Whenever there was cultural contact in the context of European colonization and empire building historical records teem with comparisons among those cultures This edited volume focuses on what historical agents actually do when they compare rather than on comparison as an analytic method Its contributors are thus interested in the doing of comparison and explore the force of these practices of comparing in shaping empires and post colonial relations between the sixteenth and twentieth centuries This book will appeal to students and scholars of global history as well as those interested in cultural history and the history of colonialism

Empire, The Sea and Global History David Cannadine, 2007-06-28 Between the end of the Seven Years war in 1763 and the abolition of slavery within its Empire in 1833 Britain s maritime engagement with the wider world was transformed The essays in this book explore different aspects of that transformation and in so doing assess the significance and complexities of Britain s maritime world in this key period which was characterized by the contradictory and competing forces of revolution and reaction liberty and imperialism war and peace enlightenment and enslavement They were originally delivered as lectures in a series jointly sponsored by the Institute of Historical Research and by the Centre for Imperial and Maritime Studies at the National Maritime Museum Global History: The contemporary world, 1900s to present David W. Del Testa, Florence Lemoine, John Strickland, 2004 Contains primary source material Multicultural Global History Richard D. Lewis, Lewis, 1995-10 Sources of Twentieth-century Global History James H. Overfield, 2002 With sources from around the globe this reader offers balanced coverage of the events and developments that shaped the twentieth century Special attention is devoted to women s activism including their statements against Chinese footbinding unfair educational and work opportunities in Egypt the Indian dowry system and abortion restrictions under Stalin Treaties laws speeches literature political tracts letters and more make for a diverse pool of primary sources Back cover
