Street Hospital Manual of Children's Nursing Practices is an evidence based manual of practical skills in children's nursing which builds on the extensive expertise developed at Great Ormond Street Hospital. It encompasses all aspects of children's nursing from the most basic aspects of everyday practice to advanced practice in high dependency and intensive care to provide a comprehensive resource for all qualified nurses, students and other health care professionals involved in caring for children both in the hospital and the community setting. Children's and young people's nursing presents unique challenges. The Great Ormond Street Hospital Manual utilises the latest clinical research and expert clinical knowledge to address these challenges and provides the underlying theory and evidence for nursing care of children. It provides a definitive guide to clinical skills, procedures in children's and young people's nursing which enables nurses working with children and young people to practice confidently and deliver clinically effective, family centred care. Key features: Offers access to clinical procedures developed through the extensive expertise from Great Ormond Street Hospital. Contains evidence based recommendations for expert care. Encompasses all aspects of children's care. Contains procedures, guidelines students can rely on and effectively use in practice following qualification. Highlights specific needs of neonates and adolescents. Placed in the context of inter disciplinary care of the child. Includes the rationale for each procedure, the why as well as how. Information presented in a similar way to The Royal Marsden Manual of Clinical Nursing Procedures, offering continuity to those working in both adult and paediatric settings. The New Walford Guide to Reference Resources Ray Lester, 2005. The New Walford highlights the best resources to use when undertaking a search for accurate and relevant information, saving you precious time and effort. For those looking for a selective and evaluative reference resource that really delivers on its promise, look no further. In addition to print sources, The New Walford naturally covers an extensive range of e reference sources such as digital databanks, digital reference services, electronic journal collections, meta search engines, networked information services, open archives, resource discovery services and websites of premier organizations in both the public and private sectors. But rather than supplying a list of all available known resources as a web search engine might, The New Walford subject specialists have carefully selected and evaluated available resources to provide a definitive list of the most appropriate and useful. With an emphasis on quality and sustainability the subject specialists have been careful to assess the differing ways that information is framed and communicated in different subject areas As a result the resource evaluations in each subject area are prefaced by an introductory overview of the structure of the relevant literature This ensures that The New Walford is clear easy to use and intuitive Publisher
