Ciulla, 2011-03-16 A wide ranging look at the allure and changing significance of work With seductions misunderstandings and misinformation everywhere this immensely readable book calls for a new contract with ourselves Drawing from history mythology literature pop culture and practical experience Ciulla probes the many meanings of work or its meaninglessness and asks Why are so many of us letting work take over our lives and trying to live in what little time is left What has happened to the old unspoken contract between worker and employer Why are young people not being disloyal when they regularly consider job changing Employers can't promise as much to workers as before Is that because they promise so much to stockholders Why are there mass layoffs and downsizing in a time of unequaled corporate prosperity And why are the most common lies in business about satisfactory employee performance The traditional contract between employers and employees is over This thoughtful and provocative study shows how to replace it by the one we make with ourselves Illinois Central Magazine ,1926
