Dewsbury,Susannah McGowan,Sheila S. Jaswal ,Desiree Forsythe,2024-09-24 Research demonstrates that STEM disciplines perpetuate a history of exclusion particularly for students with marginalized identities This poses problems particularly when science permeates every aspect of contemporary American life Institutions repeated failures to disrupt systemic oppression in STEM has led to a mostly white cisgender and male scientific workforce replete with implicit and or explicit biases Education holds one pathway to disrupt systemic linkages of STEM oppression from society to the classroom Maintaining views on science as inherently objective isolates it from the world in which it is performed STEM education must move beyond the transactional approaches to transformative environments manifesting respect for students social and educational capital We must create a STEM environment in which students with marginalized identities feel respected listened to and valued We must assist students in understanding how their positionality privilege and power both historically and currently impacts their meaning making and understanding of STEM Technology Applied Kevin Wooldridge,Stephen

Ashurst,2024-08-01 Technology love it or hate it is a critical component for nearly every modern business To the business leader or aspiring business leader the world of technology may sometimes appear to be confusing and obscure The language and nuance of software systems and IT projects is often a barrier to effective communication between different parts of an enterprise at just the time when it s most needed during a technology enabled project that is seeking to deliver business benefit This book sets out in clear non technical language and with practical real world examples the essential background to different aspects of information technology hardware software data and interfaces their latest manifestations such as artificial intelligence and blockchain and how they all combine into a technology project Most importantly this book helps you the business leader understand the people behind the technology appreciate their perspective and their motivations and to enable you to ask the crucial questions that could transform your engagement to apply technology effectively Transitions into Parenthood Sampson Lee Blair,Rosalina Pisco Costa,2019-11-25 Around the globe the very conceptualization of family is associated with the relationship between a parent and a child The birth of a child represents both the end of one experience and the beginning of another New York Court of Appeals.
